INTRODUCTORY NOTE

Our late Class Secretary, Albert Harding Newman, did not live to prepare this Report. He had provided for the preliminary work of sending out the blanks, etc., but there remained the task of arranging and editing the biographical sketches, correcting the proof sheets, and seeing the whole through the press. In accordance with Newman's expressed wish, and at the request of the Class Committee, these duties were assumed by Alfred Johnson.

Only those acquainted with the detail involved in preparing a Report, can appreciate the labor required; and your Committee know that they voice the feelings of the Class in expressing our gratitude to Johnson for having so generously given his time to the work, and for completing it with such conscientious care.

In the increase of statistical matter, and in the arrangement of its contents the present Report differs somewhat from those previously issued. These changes have been made to conform with certain uniform standards proposed by the Harvard Alumni Association, and now adopted by other classes.

While no pains have been spared to make the following records accurate, it is not to be expected that a book of this nature should be without errors. All members of the Class are, therefore, requested to call the attention of the Class Committee to mistakes or omissions, that these may be rectified in the next issue.

After the death of our former treasurer, Thorndike Spalding, the Class Committee suggested that its number, thus reduced to two, should be increased by the election of three new members. At the Commencement meeting of 1910 the Class approved this suggestion, and appointed a Nominating Committee to propose candidates. These candidates were voted upon by a postal ballot of the entire Class; and Norman Williams Bingham, Jr., Robert Wales Emmons, 2d, and Robert Duffield Wrenn were thus added to the Class Committee. Of these Emmons was appointed Treasurer.

Certified Public Accountant.

CLASSIFIED LIST

OF THE

MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1895

Arranged to show the class status of each member

An asterisk (*) indicates death: Preceding a date at the right of the column it indicates the year of death. A degree of A.B. or S.B. out of course is indicated, as in the Quinquennial Catalogue, by the year placed directly after the name. A superior numeral 1, 2, 3 or 4, printed before a name, indicates entrance into the class in the corresponding year out of course. The superior letter a, b, c or d, printed after a name, indicates withdrawal from the class in or at the end of the freshman, sophomore, junior or senior year respectively.

Address	(home) 1819 M St., Washington, D. C. (business) Stoneleigh Court, Washington, D. C.

After leaving Cambridge, I joined a group of classmates at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York City, where we ground up dry bones and many long-forgotten drugs into medical and surgical pabulum. Then after a superficial insight into the medical work at the University of Berlin, I entered Mount Sinai Hospital, in New York City and during the two years there learned not only medicine, surgery, and Yiddish, but found out that a trained nurse was essential to all my future well-being. After four months more in the New York Lying-In Hospital, returned to the old home in Washington, D. C., and started to practise some of the things which I thought I had learned, and taught in the Georgetown Medical School. In about three years transferred my allegiance to the George Washington

Medical School, where I am still trying to teach. The possibilities of radium treatment appealed to me early, and at the Jamestown Exposition we got together and demonstrated the work of a few progressive men for which a silver medal was awarded. That work I have continued, and in 1913 at the beginning of the radium boom, had the opportunity to make the rounds of the European clinics and see some of the first great strides in the direction of cancer cures. Have also been active in the work for betterment of anesthetics and meanwhile have done a certain amount of surgery and the practice of general medicine, enough to keep the wolf from the door. I have contributed to Wharton and Stille's Medical Jurisprudence, Vol. III., 1905, and also articles on surgery, history, and radium, in medical journals. Member: University Club, Harvard Club, American Medical Association, Medical Society of the District of Columbia, and various other local medical societies.

Occupation	Trustee and Theatrical Producer.
Address	(home) North Easton, Mass. (business) 240 West 44th St., New York, N. Y.

After graduation, I spent one term in the Harvard Graduate School, specializing in English and the history of the drama. The next year I travelled in Europe. In 1897 I entered the firm of Bates and Guild Co., of Boston, publishers of architectural and art books and magazines. While there I instituted and conducted two periodicals, "Masters in Art," and "Masters in Music," (the latter being edited by Daniel Gregory Mason, '95); and for a time edited "The

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Architectural Review," in addition to supervising the general book-making of the company. I was six years in this trade. In 1904 I determined to become a theatrical producer. To get practical experience I leased (with a partner) the Castle Square Theatre in Boston, and for three seasons conducted a stock company there. In 1907 I planned to build a theatre for my own use in Boston; and spent a part of that year in Europe, studying the methods and playhouses in Germany, France and England. But in 1908 an offer of the directorship of The New Theatre, then being built in New York City, changed my plans; and the preliminary work of this enterprise engaged me until the theatre opened in November, 1909. I remained as director of The New Theatre until its close in 1911. In September of that year (1911) I married. During the following winter I built a playhouse of my own; The Little Theatre, in New York. It opened in March, 1912. Since then I have devoted myself to conducting this theatre, and in producing plays elsewhere. In 1913 I undertook, in addition, the direction of The Booth Theatre, also in New York, which opened in October of that year. Business or pleasure has taken me to Europe fourteen times in the twenty years since graduation. Member: Boston: Tavern Club, Union Club, Tennis and Racquet Club; New York: Union Club, Players Club, University Club, Brook Club.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

I have been with Heywood Brothers and Wakefield Company since October, 1895, busily engaged in making chairs for '95 men and baby carriages for their progeny. In 1903 I became superintendent, having charge of about 700 men, and in 1912 was promoted to a responsible executive position. I have served on the Board of Park Commissioners for the past nine years, have also been Town Auditor for two years, and last year was elected on the Town Planning Board.

NEWELL ALVIN BARKER

Born	Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 13, 1872.
Parents	John Barker, Amelia Annie Wyeth.
School	Cambridge Latin School, Cambridge, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895.
Occupation	Teacher.
Address	Racine College, Racine, Wis.

Immediately upon being graduated, in September, 1895, I entered upon the work of teaching, and have continued in that profession up to the present time. For several years I was connected with the Brooklyn Latin School and for one year with Cutler School in New York. Later, however, I took up work in a boys' boarding-school, first at Yeates School, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, and afterwards at Racine College in Racine, Wisconsin, where I have been located for the past three years. During this time I have taught other incidental subjects, but the greater part of my work has been in Greek, French and Latin. Always fond of amateur sport, I have taken an active interest in contests among boys, and for a number of years have supervised the work of the juniors in all branches of their athletics.

where I was graduated in 1898. I was ordained deacon at once, and for rather more than four years served as assistant to William Reed Huntington, '59, at Grace Church, New York. In 1902, I became rector of the Memorial Church of St. Paul, Overbrook, Philadelphia. Six years later (1908), I was called as dean to the Cathedral of our Merciful Saviour, Faribault, Minnesota. My oldest child was severely affected by the climate in Minnesota, and I was therefore glad to accept a call to become rector of the Church of Our Saviour, Jenkintown, Pa., in 1911. There I still am, busy with the usual work of my parish, and interested in a number of the activities of the diocese.

HARRY ALBERT BATHRICK

Born	Scotts, Mich., Dec. 19, 1871.

From the time of my graduation until June, 1896, I taught English in the New Hampshire Agricultural College at Durham, N. H. From September, 1896, to January, 1899, I tutored the son of a mill-owner in Rumford Falls, Maine. From January, 1899, to June, 1901, I was a master at St. Paul's School in Concord, N. H. From September, 1901, to June, 1910, I was master of the Choir School at Grace Church, New York City. From September, 1910, to June, 1912, I was again a master at St. Paul's School, when I prepared the boys for their college examinations in history. In September, 1912, I took the head mastership of the Choir School at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City. This school is a boarding school for the forty boys who sing in the Cathedral choir, and has occupied for two years a stone schoolhouse built for it on the Cathedral grounds. My summers I always spend in the White Mountains, where I have a place in the town of Eaton. I have never regretted that I took up teaching. For one whose temperament fits him to handle boys, there can be no pleasanter occupation than that of a teacher. I am also interested to some extent in social work on the East Side of New York. Member: Harvard Club of New York.

CLASS OF 1895—FIFTH REPORT

After graduation I taught for ten years, as senior master in the Fay School, Southborough, Mass., Latin, Mathematics and English. In 1906 I became associated with the firm of Bond and Goodwin in Boston, as manager of their stock department and was afterwards connected in the same capacity with the Boston office of Wm. C. Langley and Co. of New York and later with Wm. G. Nickerson and Co. I had bought a farm in Southborough and since my marriage had lived there and occupied my spare time in farming. In the autumn of 1913, I gave up active business and went South with my family, in the hope that the climate of South Carolina would benefit my wife who had been ill for some time. My wife died in Camden, South Carolina, and in the spring of 1914, I returned North and have since lived with my children in Boston. I am a director of the David Stevenson Co. of New York, and a trustee and administrator of the Stevenson estate and have also recently become associated with the firm of Patterson, Wyld and Windeler, general insurance agents. Member: Brookline Country Club, Boston Athletic Association, Harvard Club of Boston, Harvard Club of New York.

School course acted as Graduate Treasurer of the Harvard Athletic Committee. Was admitted to the bar at Boston in July, 1898, and practised for about six years in the office of Carver and Blodgett, at Boston. In January, 1905, entered into a partnership with F. H. Smith, Jr., '96, and D. M. Hill, '98, and practised with them until April, 1913, when the partnership was dissolved and I entered my present firm of Blodgett, Jones, Burnham and Bingham. A few years ago my name was added to the '95 class committee, as nearly as I could figure it out without giving the members of the class any opportunity to vote on the question. But I have never succeeded in slipping into any other positions of honor or trust in that easy fashion. I left Harvard in 1895 and in September resumed my work as Adjunct Professor of Latin at Western Maryland College, Westminster, Md. The following year I was made dean of the faculty and remained at Western Maryland until 1901. In September, 1901, I moved back to Lynchburg, Va., my home town. For college work I substituted high school work; but I made the change because for many reasons it suited me best to be at home. In 1905 I was made principal of the high school, a position I still hold. My school will enroll this year more than 600 students, and I am in every way satisfied that I changed to high school work. For four years, 1908-1912, I was librarian of the George M. Jones Memorial Library, given to the city of Lynchburg by my wife's great aunt and representing a gift of $120,000. I undertook this work at the personal request of the donor of the library, giving to it some spare time in the afternoon and on Saturdays. I was offered the position of superintendent of schools in another city of Virginia, smaller than this, but preferred to remain here. I was one of the charter members of the Harvard Club of Virginia, organized in 1909, I think, and was president of the club in its second year. President Virginia Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges, 1912-13, and for several years member of its executive committee. The Southern Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges has had for several years a commission on accrediting schools. This commission consists of three representatives from each state and its work is thought to have been of great value. I am one of the three members from Virginia. Children	Katherine Southwick, Feb. 11, 1908; Frederick DeWolf, Jr., June 30, 1912.

Occupation	Lumber Merchant.
Address	(home) 624 South Broadway, Leavenworth, Kan. (business) 611 Cherokee St., Leavenworth, Kan.

After two years residence at Cambridge as a special student, '95, I left college in 1893, and for the succeeding two years was in the employ of R. G. Dun and Co. at Kansas City. From 1895 to 1897 I was connected with the Great Western Manufacturing Co. of Leavenworth, Kansas, and during the following four years I was engaged in the cattle ranching business in central Kansas. I spent the early part of 1902 in northern Mexico and returned to Leavenworth to become cashier of the State Savings Bank. In the spring of 1905 I entered the lumber business at Leavenworth, Kansas, on my own account and since that time I have conducted the business under the name of Bolman Lumber Co. In addition to my business at Leavenworth, I have a branch at Farley, Missouri, a small town between this place and Kansas City. I was married in 1906 to Florence Louise Tullock, Smith College, '03. We have two children, a girl of seven and a boy of nearly three years. Most of my touch with Harvard men and most of the intimate information I am able to secure about Harvard, comes through the fellow-members of the Harvard Club of Kansas City and through occasional members of the faculty who happen to travel westward and are entertained by that club. I am a director of the Army National Bank at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, of the Leavenworth Savings and Trust Company of this city, temporary secretary of the Harvard Club of Kansas, which we are endeavoring to organize with the idea of pro-

Occupation	Minister.
Address	81 Summer St., Lawrence, Mass.

The story of my life can be told in few words. For the past 15 years I have been a minister, or technically speaking, a priest in the Protestant Episcopal Church. About eight years ago I started a church in South Lawrence. I now have a church of some 650 members, a Sunday school of 600, and a Men's Club of 250 members. My parish is what is called a working parish, that is to say every one works but the rector. I wish to state in concluding the history of my life that I have been the author of some 1,500 sermons, none of which have been published. Member: Country Parson's Club, Archdeaconry of Lowell, South Lawrence Improvement Society.

After we all left the "Yard" in '95, I went to Dover, Delaware. There, in order to recuperate from the effects of my senior year attack of typhoid, I devoted the winter largely to out-of-door life and spent very little time in work. Football, hockey and baseball occupied much of my leisure. The social life was delightful. With a team composed of U. of P. Varsity football men and some academy players, I made a football trip into Maryland and Virginia. In the spring I was offered a chance to join a minor league baseball team, but instead, now being in good health again, I went to Chicago to join a publishing house. This position, after a week, I dropped; teaching was the more attractive, and this I have followed almost without interruption ever since. First, in Chicago, I formed a private class of young men preparing for college. Then I became a member of the mathematics department of the Armour Institute of Technology, Chicago, and remained there four years. While there I supervised the mathematics department of the Allied American Correspondence School, and prepared one of their texts. In 1903 I received a leave of absence for graduate study and also in order that I might attend to business interests in Colorado. In February, 1904, I entered the graduate department of Teachers College, but in the fall changed to the regular graduate department of Columbia proper. Also I became editor of "Fair Play," a young people's magazine, and carried on courses for teachers as extension work of New Rochelle College. In the fall of 1907 I was offered positions simultaneously in the latter college and in the College of the City of New York. I accepted both and have been with the last-named college ever since. Concomitantly I have carried on college extension courses for teachers in New York City and Brooklyn, and for five years taught all of the mathematics in the newly organized college of Mount Saint Mary, Plainfield, New Jersey. These positions, and the entailed work connected with them, necessarily curtailed the research work I planned doing at Columbia. However, I have made trips to Berlin, Paris and London twice; once purely for pleasure and once for research work in the military libraries abroad. This work has been supplemented by other study in this country, and is now completed. At present (1915) I am collating the results of my research studies and carrying on class work in one college, that of the College of the City of New York. Outside of this I am interested in the social and civic work of the Broadway Forum, of which I am vice-president, and whose discussions I desire to see marked by the spirit of truth which we learned amid Harvard's walls. I have made auto trips nearly half across our continent and I find that, with the passing years, the familiar faces of my '95 classmates are more and more welcome. I have prepared: Elementary Algebra and Arithmetic (American School Correspondence, about 1903). Member: American Mathematical Society, Broadway Forum.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Children	Franziska, Dec. 28, 1907 (died Jan. 2, 1908); Gernda, Aug. 22, 1909; Hans, Feb. 4, 1912.
Occupation	Lawyer.
Address	(home) 49 West 57th St., New York, N. Y. (business) 25 Broad St., New York, N. Y.

In September, 1895, I entered the law office of Briesen and Knauth, New York, and in October entered the New York University Law School. After graduating in 1897 I took charge of the Washington branch office of that firm in 1900. In April, 1904, I returned to the New York office of Briesen and Knauth, and was admitted to the firm on January 1, 1906. During my stay in Washington I attended the School of Comparative Jurisprudence and Diplomacy of Columbian University (now George Washington University), at which I obtained in 1901 the degree of LL.M., and 1902 the degree of D.C.L. The subject of my thesis was "Federal Protection of Aliens." Most of my work lies in the domain of patent and trademark litigation. I have interested myself in so many things that I have not found time to do any one thing especially well. I am particularly interested in French language and history and am treasurer of the French Alliance for Staten Island. I am also a trustee of the American Seamen's Friend Society. I have found time to do a little travelling abroad. I am a director of the Locomotive Superheater Company. I have held no office of honor or trust and have absolutely no ambition in this direction except that I may sometime be permitted to fill such an office in the service of Harvard College. I have written in "The Brief of Phi Delta Phi": An Old Slander: The Supreme Court and the Legal-Tender Decisions, (Vol. III, No. 1, 1900), Thomas Erskine and His First Case, (Vol. IV, No. 1, 1903), Federal Protection of Domiciled Aliens, (Vol. IV, No. 3, 1903), The Confusion of Patent Courts in the United States, (Vol. V, No. 4, 1905). Occupation	Lumberman.
Address	(home) 2619 Divisadero St., San Francisco, Cal. (business) 506 Fife Building, San Francisco, Cal.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

After leaving the Law School, I went to Chicago where I was for one year in the law offices of Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis. I went to California in 1900 intending to help my father for a short time in launching a lumber enterprise in the San Bernardino mountains of Southern California. I found the lumber business congenial and have been at it ever since. In 1912 we exhausted our supply of timber in California, and the past two years have been engaged in building a new plant in Oregon on the Pacific coast, where our company owns extensive timber lands. I have published: Briefs for Debate, (Longmans, Green, and Co., 1896), edited by Brookings and Ringwalt. Member: Redlands University Club, San Francisco Harvard Club.

Address	(home) 77 Elm St., Worcester, Mass. (business) 946 Slater Building, Worcester, Mass.

Shortly after receiving degree in June, 1895, I went abroad and travelled about three months in Switzerland, Holland, France, and England. About November 1, 1895, I became an employee of the Mechanical Fabric Company in Providence where I lived and worked for about two and one-half years, until the outbreak of the Spanish-American war. In April, 1898, I enlisted in the First Rhode Island Volunteers, serving about seven months, and was honorably discharged in December, 1898. Instead of returning to my work in Providence I entered the Harvard Law School and finally obtained the degree of LL.B. in 1902. I was admitted to the Massachusetts bar about March, 1902. In October, 1902, I commenced the practice of law in the office of Smith, Gage and Dresser, where I stayed a little over three years. In March, 1906, I opened an office and have since that time been practising law on my own account. In 1911, I was appointed by the Mayor as one of a commission of five members called the Playground Commission to supervise recreation in the City of Worcester. In the fall of 1912 I was elected Solicitor for the Equity, Home, and Worcester Co-operative Banks. I am also interested in the Local Council of Boy Scouts of America, and have held the office of Treasurer since 1912. Member: Worcester Chamber of Commerce, Worcester Economic Club, Worcester Harvard Club, Worcester Club, Quinsigamond Boat Club.

Address	(home) 149 Randolph Ave., Milton, Mass. (business) 60 State St., Boston, Mass.

After leaving college. I spent three years at the Harvard Law School and received the degree of LL.B. in 1898. Since that time I have been practising law in Boston, with offices at 60 State Street. I lived at Hingham up to the time of my marriage in 1907. At that time I moved to Milton, where I have since lived. I have served on the Warrant Committee of the town, and on several special committees. From time to time I have acted in a professional capacity for the Park Commissioners, the Sewer Commissioners, and the Board of Health. In January, 1914, as chairman of the Committee on Public Education, I was instrumental (with the other members of the committee) in writing and publishing a 100-page report on Milton schools, embodying the results of nearly a year's investigation.

Address	(home) 80 Rumsey Road, Buffalo, N. Y. (business) 91½ Ellicott Square, Buffalo, N. Y.

Received LL.B. from University of Buffalo, and was admitted to the bar in 1898. Joined 65th Regiment National Guard in 1895; captain of Company A in December, 1896; and through United States service in 1898; full and honorable discharge, 1901. On return from United States service began practice of law, and am still engaged at it, giving much time since 1906 to public and church work. Republican committeeman, 1899-1908; delegate to state conventions, 1906, 1908 and 1910, supporting Hughes and Stimson. Member Progressive Party since 1912. Councilman of City, 1907-1911. President of Common Council, 1908. Taught Constitutional Law and Code Practice in Buffalo Law School,

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

1902-1904. Associate Council of State Commission investigating National Guard, 1907-1908. Active in Y. M. C. A., especially boys' work; in Laymen's Missionary Movement; and in Episcopal Church, especially at conventions. Compiled and annotated an edition of the Buffalo Charter, published by the City, 1908. Missed quinquennial because Mrs. Bull's illness in Venice called me there on my only trip abroad. Saw little of Europe except Ober-Ammergau Passion Play, which I hope to see again every ten years. Retired from general practice in firm to follow special lines, free from any restraining influences of financial or business nature. By some vigorous fighting, political and legal, have gained a position at least of recognized independence. Am enjoying hard work, partly on lawyer's usual jobs, partly on causes undertaken because seemingly worth while; and am trying to develop greater vision, sympathy and usefulness. For escape from middle-age stagnation (if I have avoided it) credit is due my wife. Member of Saturn, Ellicott and Wanakah Golf Clubs. Have greatly enjoyed calls from some Harvard men and their appreciation of the best in Buffalo and Niagara Falls, which I like to show and often can take time to do. '95 men coming this way are especially welcome.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

After touring Europe awheel during the summer months of '95, I entered the Newton Theological Institution. Instead of taking my senior work there I studied a year at the Free Church College, Glasgow, Scotland. On being graduated in '98 I became pastor of the First Baptist Church, Belfast, Maine. In December of 1900 I resigned to travel with my father, mother and sister in Egypt, Palestine, and Europe for a year, and, on my return, became pastor of the First Baptist Church, Madison, Wisconsin. The summer of 1904 I left the pastorate to go as a missionary to China, under the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society, sailing from San Francisco that autumn to engage in educational work in Kwantung Province at Swatow. I visited Japan in the summer of 1906, where, the 28th of August at Karuizawa, I was married to Henrietta Abby Mayo. We returned to the United States on furlough in the spring of 1912, taking with us a daughter and a son, Helen Richmond, born September 30, 1908, and Carl Mayo, born January 29, 1911. Since December of 1913 I have again been living in China where I have charge of the Swatow Academy which is a high school doing the same grade of work as college preparatory institutions in the homeland. Our graduates study further in colleges, medical schools or theological schools, take teaching positions, or enter business. China is rallying the mighty energies of her moral strength to join forces with the United States in leading the world.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

In February, 1908, I left Wall Street and travelled abroad with my family for two years. Then I returned to New York and for two years did not engage in any active business. In the fall of 1911, I became interested in the process and manufacture of threads and yarns made from China-grass or ramie, and in January, 1912, became associated with the Superior Thread and Yarn Co., which manufactures ramie yarns exclusively. This is the largest, and in fact, the only successful company manufacturing yarns from this fibre in the United States. (This thread is used most extensively in making incandescent gas-mantles). I am at present treasurer of the corporation and have devoted my entire time to the study of ramie and am considered one of the few experts on this fibre in the United States, being consulted by the government on all matters pertaining to this subject. I have written numerous articles for the "trade" papers on ramie. Member: Harvard Club of New York, Union Club of New York.

ELLIOTT BRADFORD CHURCH

Born	Taunton, Mass., July 26, 1873.
Parents	Thomas Le Baron Church, Louisa Morton Elliott.
School	High School, Taunton, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; LL.B., 1898.
Married	Blanche Bonnelle, Boston, Oct. 24, 1907.
Children	Eleanor Bradford, June 17, 1910; Mary Sumner, March 30, 1913.
Occupation	Lawyer.
Address	(home) 30 Bennington St., Newton, Mass. (business) 19 Congress St., Boston, Mass.

After graduation I spent three years at the Harvard Law School, receiving the degree of LL.B. in 1898. From 1898 to 1899 I was with the law firm of Smith and Ludden, 31 Milk Street, Boston, and from 1899 to 1903 was a member of the firm of Lounsbury, Holbrook and Church. From 1903 to January 1, 1912, I practised law with classmate Youngman at 84 State Street, Boston; since that time Youngman and I have been at 19 Congress Street with Hollis R. Bailey, '77, and Charles E. Shattuck, '87. My practice has been of a general character; for the past ten years I have given considerable time and thought to the housing of families of moderate means, at the present time managing apartments occupied by twenty-one families. Since July 1, 1914, I have been one of the trustees of the Industrial Cotton Oil Properties, a voluntary association subsidiary to the American Cotton Oil Company, 27 Beaver Street, New York City. We operate a number of cotton seed oil mills in Texas. While residing in Boston I was actively interested for several years in the work of the Public School Association and subsequently in that of the Good Government Association. In 1904 I took an active part in the campaign which secured the election of James J. Storrow to the Boston School Committee; in 1906 I assisted in the organization of the Boston City Club. In the summer of 1898 I made a tour of Western Europe; subsequently I took several canoeing trips in the Maine woods with Stephen Phillips, '95, and with my brother, Morton Church, '02, and with the latter a walking and boating trip in the Adirondacks. With Mrs. Church I have been to Bermuda and to the Saguenay River and Quebec. For my summer vacations I am now established with my family in close proximity to the summer home of classmate Phillips in the town of New London, N. H., overlooking Lake Sunapee and Sunapee Mountain. Since my residence in Newton, I have devoted my spare time to the cultivation of my garden in which I raise flowers for the house from the earliest snow drops in the spring to the last chrysanthemum in the fall, not to mention peas, beans and lettuce for the table. In Philosophy 4, Prof. Palmer once said, "They are fortunate persons who have hobbies"; I think I may safely regard myself as one of these. Member: Old Colony Historical Society, and Ionic Lodge, A. F. and A. M., of Taunton, Mass.; Eight O'Clock Club, Newton Improvement Association, and Unitarian Club of Newton; Massachusetts Audubon Society, Society for the Protection of New Hampshire Forests, Boston City Club, Harvard Musical Association, Harvard Law School Association, Bar Association of the City of Boston, American Bar Association.

Occupation	Electrical Engineer and Contractor.
Address	(home) Walpole St., Sharon, Mass. (business) 69 Newbury St., Boston, Mass.

Since the last class report I have continued my occupation as president of the Clark and Mills Electric Co., electrical contractors, with Charles Wilson Mills, '95, as vice-president and Arthur W. Perry as treasurer. My home is on a small farm at Sharon, Mass. I have become interested in a twenty-acre orange and grape fruit grove at Lake Lucerne, near Florence Villa in the lake region of Polk County in the central part of Florida. For the past four years I have spent a few weeks each winter in Florida. My vocation is that of the electrical contractor. We maintain an office at 1444 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge, opposite the west college gate, and also an office at 69 Newbury St., Boston. We do a small amount of larger contract work and a large amount of small work each year, and maintain several agencies for electrical household utilities, such as vacuum cleaners, electric ranges, etc. For an avocation I am trying to gain a little illumination along the lines of agriculture, economics, and nationalism. By nationalism I mean a coöperative commonwealth. I believe, with Hobson, in the national prohibition of the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquors; I believe, as a temporary measure, in the single tax; and I believe in a lot of other reforms; but I can see one measure that would include all needed reforms; namely, a sane, universal education. But I can't quite see clearly how we are to get this sane, universal education, for the educators do not know how to give it to us. A sane education must include economics and religion as essentials; but strange to say both of the essentials of education are now left out of our educational systems, for fear that economics will lead to partisan politics and for fear that the teaching of honesty and right and wrong may lead to sectarianism. Then besides economics and religion a sane education must teach science, agriculture, and vocations. A very meagre study of economics shows one that the money losses per annum in the United States alone under our present competitive society are simply enormous and awful to contemplate. This economic loss is estimated by an economist named Simonds at between one hundred and two hundred billions of dollars per year in the United States alone. Question: How long will it take a Sane Universal Education to change the name United States of America into Utopia? P. S.—Fellow classmen—Please answer soon. at Earlham College, Richmond, Indiana. From July, 1906, to October, 1908, was employed by the U. S. Geological Survey, making analyses of river waters in laboratories at Urbana, Illinois, at the Jamestown Exposition at Norfolk, Virginia, and in Washington. The report on the work done in Illinois is published by the Geological Survey as a "Water Supply Paper." Since 1908 I have been in the Bureau of Chemistry. My work has been mainly in studying methods of analysis, the examination of products with reference to prosecutions and the training of new men in analytical work. I have worked on methods for analysis of mineral waters, especially for lithium, the examination of radioactive drug preparations and waters, and at present I am starting to fix up the methods for heavy metals in foods.

After leaving college I was connected in various capacities with the Red Star Line Steamship Co. for some thirteen years. Thereafter I was an adjuster for the Fidelity Casualty Co., manager of a Mercantile Agency and lately with the United States Fidelity Guaranty Co. My chief occupation and recreation in leisure hours, has been, for many years past, yachting in a modest way on my small auxiliary sloop. My life has been uneventful and lacking in the honors and high positions to which many of my more worthy classmates have achieved. I am a member of the Masonic Fraternity.

Children	James Calvin, Sept. 28, 1905.
Died	July 19, 1913, Topsfield, Mass.

Alford Warriner Cooley, the oldest son of James Calvin and Agnes Medicott Cooley, was born at Westchester, New York, on April 9, 1873. He prepared for college at St. Paul's School, Concord, New Hampshire. After graduation from Harvard, he studied law at Columbia University and took the LL.B. degree there in 1898. During the two following years he served as a member of the New York State Assembly. From 1901 to 1903 he was clerk of the Surrogate's Court in Westchester county. In 1903, President Roosevelt, who had a warm affection for him and whose confidence, friendship, and inspiring influence were important factors in his subsequent career, appointed him United States Civil Service Commissioner. Thenceforth Washington became his headquarters, though his work took him to all parts of the country. On December 1, 1914, he married Susan Dexter Dalton at Longwood, Mass. James Calvin Cooley, their only child, was born on September 28th of the year following. In 1906 President Roosevelt appointed Cooley Assistant Attorney-General of the United States. A career so varied and successful within the first dozen years after graduation meant the development of a wide range of interests. Cooley's enthusiasm broadened, his vitality was always exuberant, he radiated health, wholesomeness, and optimism. His retentive memory, well ordered mind, and great capacity for work enabled him speedily to master the intricacies and difficulties of the widely varying tasks that he undertook. While he was still young and in the midst of achievement, his career was shattered. In August, 1908, he found that tuberculosis had developed in his lungs. He resigned his position in Washington and went to a sanatorium in New Mexico. Six months later, feeling able to re-enter active life, he accepted a second appointment as Assistant Attorney-General of the United States. But it was for only a short time that he held this office. In May, 1909, he returned to New Mexico, confident that his strength would permit him to assume the duties of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the State, to which office he had been appointed by President Taft. His determination not to give up under adversity and illness, but to hew out a new career for himself in a new place may have been unwise, yet to many of his friends it seems one of the fine things in an admirable life. That his capacity for useful service soon made itself appreciated in the community that now became his home, is shown by the fact that besides holding a place on the Supreme bench, he was made President of the Board of Regents of the New Mexico Normal School and Regent of the University of New Mexico. But gradually he had to let go one task after another. The disease had reached an advanced stage when in May, 1913, he was brought to Boston to take the Friedman treatment. It proved futile; the last few weeks of his life he passed in a little cottage at Topsfield, and there on July 19th he died. Admirable as was Alford Cooley's active career, it was in the five years of invalidism preceding his death that his character ripened and displayed rare qualities that even those who had known him best and liked him most would hardly have ascribed to it. The dogmatism, narrowness, and intensity of prejudice that characterized him in his earlier years had been gradually wearing away, even before his illness. And now, in place of them were revealed a rich and tolerant sympathy, a gentle readiness to hear different points of view, a sweetness and an unselfishness of thought that it was often poignant to observe and that it is quite impossible to describe. The exuberant vitality, the abounding spirits, were subdued by illness, but remained even to the last in an extraordinary measure. He never even by inference lamented his lot or betrayed a sense of bitterness. Sad as it was to see him towards the end, wasted and dying, it was not wholly sad; one went away from him stirred by his bright and valorous spirit. Nothing could have been more beautiful than his family life. His relations with his mother, his wife, and his little boy were ideal. The affectionate side of his nature, always strong, was developed still further in the years of suffering. Alford Cooley was unlike many men in that he kept throughout his life the simple religious faith in which he was brought up as a child. Deep and abiding he held it to the end. He died as nearly universally honored by those who knew him as a man can be.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

CLASS OF 1895—FIFTH REPORT

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

My life history for the last twenty years makes uncommonly dull reading. I do not believe that any member of the class has had a happier or more uneventful time. Persons, like nations, are happiest if they have no history. I spent the two years following my Harvard graduation as an undergraduate in Balliol College, Oxford, taking the research degree B.Sc. in 1897, the first ever conferred by Oxford University. During the next two years I was teacher of mathematics in Groton School, Mass., and returned to Harvard as instructor in the same subject in the autumn of 1899. During the three years which followed I accomplished two things, matrimony, and promotion to the Harvard Faculty. In the autumn of 1902 I went abroad on leave of absence for two years of much needed further study. In that time I attended lectures in Paris, Greifswald, Turin and Bonn, taking the degree of Ph.D. at the latter university in August, 1904. Since then I have lived very quietly in Cambridge, giving most of my time to teaching and scientific writing. Besides the two books mentioned elsewhere, I have written some dozen articles of varying length upon mathematical subjects. I was for five years president of the East Cambridge conference of the Associated Charities, and am at present president of the board of directors of the Prospect Union, which is still much as it was twenty years ago, when numbers of '95 men went there to teach. I have written: Elements of Non-Euclidean Geometry, (Oxford University Press, 1909), A Treatise on the Circle and the Sphere, (Oxford University Press, 1915). Member: Association of Mathematical Teachers in New England (president), American Mathematical Society, the Cercolo Matematico di Palermo, Union Club of Boston; Fellow American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

JOHN STUART COONLEY

CLASS OF 1895—FIFTH REPORT

Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895.
Married	Louise Sherwood Root, Chicago, Ill., June 12, 1895.
Children	Lydia Avery, Jan. 3, 1897; John Stuart, Jr., Feb. 3, 1900; Frances Root, Oct. 5, 1901.
Occupation	Manufacturer.
Address	(home) 5102 East End Ave., Chicago, Ill. (business) Cicero, Ill.

After leaving college I took a position of clerk with National Malleable Castings Co. in Chicago, and in Chicago I have lived ever since. About 1898 I resigned to handle an estate. In 1899 with my three brothers I organized the C. B. Live Stock Co., a corporation that does ranching in Texas; and in 1903 we organized the Coonley Manufacturing Co., for the manufacture of enamelled cooking utensils, usually called graniteware. I am secretary and treasurer of these two corporations. Outside of these activities I have done nothing except to act as reader for three years in one of the Christian Science Churches of Chicago. Have served for four years on the executive committee of the Legislative Voters League. Member: University Club of Chicago, Harvard Club of Chicago.

GEORGE WILBERT COX

Born	Upper Stewiacke, N. S., July 9, 1856.
Parents	William F. Cox, Rebecca Woodman Delaney.
School	Horton Academy, Wolfville, N. S.
Years in College	1893-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; A.B. (Acadia College), 1880.
Married	Evangeline Ethel Davidson, Wolfville, N. S., 1881.
Children	Laurie Davidson, Aug. 18, 1883.
Occupation	Superintendent of Schools.
Address	(home) 90 Church St., Ware, Mass. (business) Town Hall, Main St., Ware, Mass.

Early in the September following my graduation I became principal of McCollom Institute at Mount Vernon, N. H. This position was held for three years, when I received an appointment as superintendent of schools at Bellows Falls, Vt. After completing two years at Bellows Falls, the principalship of the high school and the superintendency of public schools of Stockbridge, Mass., were offered me. This dual position was accepted and held for two years, at the expiration of which time, I was elected superintendent of schools at Ware, Mass. My thirteenth year of service in this position has run more than one-half its course, the date of my first election having been August, 1902. My years of service here have been filled up with really hard work. The Ware Study Club and the Village Improvement Association have offered opportunities for activity which I have not been slow to seize. During my connection with the former, I have prepared addresses as follows: "Education for the Masses," "Canadian Reciprocity," "Child Labor," and "The Canadian Government." The Masonic offices of secretary, senior warden, and worshipful master have been held by me. I have served as president and vice-president of Hampshire County Teachers' Association. Member: Ware Study Club, Eden Masonic Club, Eden Lodge, A. F. and A. M.

After getting my degree from the Harvard Law School in 1897 and working as a law clerk in Boston three years, I returned West and started in business in Omaha. A few years ago I took up a special line of work; namely, buying and plotting real-estate sub-divisions or selling them under contract for the owners. This business has grown steadily and now we have over fifty such properties in over forty cities from Maine to Wyoming. Every year we put on ten or fifteen new properties in as many different cities. It necessitates my being away from home a great deal each year, but has its compensations and rewards. I served two terms in the legislature, in 1905 and 1907, when I was the author of the Direct Primary Law and took part in the passage of many progressive measures, such as the anti-pass, and two-cent fare laws. In 1912 to 1913 was in the State Senate and got through an honest election law, putting all the election machinery in Omaha and Douglas County in an Election Commissioner. This put an abrupt end to ballot box stuffing, crooked returns and other "gang" methods of carrying on elections. Was re-elected in 1914 to the State Senate which is in session at this writing. Have taken a special interest in city and state election reforms and penal reforms. I enjoy the work and have been able so far not to allow politics to interfere with my business as the legislature is in session only three months every two years. I regret the reunions come at a season of the year when I am unable to leave my business. Member: Omaha Club, University Club of Omaha, Commercial Club of Omaha.

Children	Dorothea, Dec. 18, 1901; Malcolm, Oct. 14, 1905.
Occupation	Writer and Lecturer.
Address	139 Mason Terrace, Brookline, Mass.

After leaving college during my junior year, on account of ill-health, I began to lecture and write on applied philosophy, at my home in Boston. During the ensuing years I lectured in Hartford, New York, Philadelphia, Atlanta, London, and other cities; and I am still lecturing at intervals. After my marriage, in 1898, and a wedding trip of seven months in Europe, I settled in Cambridge, where I combined literary work and lecturing with studies in Harvard. I first completed my work for the A.B. degree, then took my master's degree, and finally the Ph.D. degree. Meanwhile, I assisted Professor Palmer in the history of philosophy and ethics, and continued as assistant in philosophy in Harvard and Radcliffe until 1911. In 1911 I went to Philadelphia for a few months, and taught philosophy for a term in Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pa. In 1912 I was appointed professor of philosophy at this college, but resigned in 1913 to return to Massachusetts and resume literary work. In 1911 I established a permanent summer home in Gray, Maine. I have written: The Power of Silence, 1895; The Perfect Whole, 1896; In Search of a Soul, 1897; Voices of Hope, 1898; Voices of Freedom, 1899; Living by the Spirit, 1900; Education and the Philosophical Ideal, 1900; The Christ Ideal, 1901; A Book of Secrets, 1902; Man and the Divine Order, 1903; Health and the Inner Life, 1906; A Physician to the Soul, 1908; The Philosophy of the Spirit, 1908; A Message to the Well, 1910; Human Efficiency, 1912; The Religion of the Spirit, 1914, (all published by G. P. Putnam's Sons); The Greatest Truth, 1907, (published by Gay and Hancock, London).

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Years in College 1891-1894.

Married (first) Lilian Shuman, Boston, April, 1899 (died Feb. 1, 1913); (second) Sylvia T. Goulston, Boston, Aug. 19, 1914.

Occupation Shirt Manufacturer.

Address (home) 120 Bay State Road, Boston, Mass.
(business) 68 Summer St., Boston, Mass.

Upon leaving college, I entered my father's business, that of shirt manufacturing, and a few years later was admitted to the firm. I still manage to "hold down my job." Feeling that business men did not take enough interest in public matters, I directed my attention, a few years ago, to the causes of juvenile delinquency and in 1904 was appointed by Governor Guild a trustee of the Lyman and Industrial Schools. I have served ever since, and for the past four years have been chairman of the board of the Massachusetts Training Schools, that have the care of most of the delinquent boys and girls committed by the courts in this state. While the work has been arduous and trying, it has been of real interest; it has broadened my outlook on life, while it has brought me "durable satisfaction" in that I have been of some help to others less fortunate, perhaps, than I. I write at this length in the hope that some other Harvard man may find similar work for his spare time. I have served in the past few years on the advisory committee of business men to the following Boston public schools: The Boys' High School of Commerce, The Girls' High School of Practical Arts, The Girls' Trade School. Member: Harvard Club of Boston, Harvard Club of New York, Boston Art Club, Boston City Club, Puddingstone Club of Boston, Elysium Club, Kernwood Country Club, Economic Club, Boston Chamber of Commerce.

Frederic Sherwood Elliot

Born	Dorchester, Mass., July 26, 1871.
Parents	Herbert Elliot, Catherine M. Bell.
School	Browne and Nichols School, Cambridge, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1894.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; LL.B., 1898.
Occupation	Lawyer.
Died	May 31, 1914, Winchester, Mass.

Frederic Sherwood Elliot graduated with the class, receiving honorable mention in history, and then entered the Harvard Law School where he took the degree of LL.B. in 1898. He was connected with the law firm of Storey, Thordike & Palmer, Boston, for two years; and after practising law alone for some months, became associated with Walter N. Buffum. In addition to his successful career as a lawyer, he was actively interested in politics and his services were in demand as a stump speaker and as caucus inspector by the Republican State Committee. He belonged to the Emmanuel Club of Boston and the Economy Club of Cambridge. Fred Elliot will be remembered by many of his classmates for his bicycle riding while in college. He was especially prominent on the Mott Haven team. Well-knit, of great endurance and self-reliance, he loved to be out in the open and was very fond of nature. Those who went skating or fishing with him realized how keenly he enjoyed these trips. His closest friends knew how true and sincere he was and appreciated his manly, sterling qualities.

Address 811 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.

After graduating at Harvard, I attended the Massachusetts Institute of Technology for two years, taking the chemical engineering course. After doing chemical work with the Norwich Bleachery, Norwich, Conn., I went into teaching. At different times I was assistant at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, adjunct professor at the Georgia School of Technology, Atlanta, and assistant professor at the New Hampshire State College. For the last nine years (since 1906) I have been wholly devoted to writing. This work has consisted of books and articles, chiefly on musical subjects. I have patented a device to cool the air of rooms, offices, etc., and am working out a new form of typewriter to write music. I have written: A Critical History of Opera, Orchestral Instruments and Their Use, Woman's Work in Music, Modern Composers of Europe, (all issued by The Page Company); Music Club Programs from All Nations, (The O. Ditson Co.), The Musician's Guide, (The University Society, New York), What to Know About Music. Member: Boston Art Club, Arcanum Club, Norwich, Conn.

Address	(home) 6 East 70th St., New York, N. Y. (business) 597 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y.

On graduating in June, 1895, I entered an architect's office as student during the summer, and in the fall enrolled as a student in the architectural department of the School of Mines at Columbia University. After two years of study, in which I finished the full four-year course in everything except fourth year design, I went to Paris where I studied during the winter of 1897-98 to enter the Ecole Nationale et Spéciale des Beaux-Arts. This I was fortunate enough to do in May '98, standing second amongst the foreigners admitted. The following winter was spent in New York; but in 1900 I returned to Paris where I continued my studies at the Ecole until the fall of 1901. The following two years and a half I worked in the offices of Wm. B. Tubby, York and Sawyer, and the Board of Education. Early in 1904 I started in business for myself and have continued the independent practice of my profession until the present time. My chief interest outside of my profession has been educational, having served as teacher, director and treasurer of the Preparatory Trade School of New York until it was taken over by the Board of Education, and having further acted as chairman of the committee on education of the Society of Beaux Arts Architects for two years, and now acting as chairman of its Paris Prize Committee. I have greatly enjoyed my work as a member of the publication committee of the "Journal of the American Institute of Architects." It is needless to add that nothing in the course of my life is of as much importance as my marriage on January 14, 1913,

Firm of Schirmer, Chapin and Emmons, formed 1905, bankers and brokers. Have made one trip to Europe and one to West Indies since last report. Have done more or less yachting for recreation, and built several boats. My elder son, Rebert W. Emmons, 3d, is now in the last term at Groton School. Groton, from which I was graduated in 1891. He was one of the first sons of one of the school graduates to go. He will be ready to enter the freshman class next fall, but may not go until the following year. Since last report, I continue in the banking and brokerage business, the firm name now being changed to F. A. Schirmer and Co., also as treasurer of the Lawrence Gas Company, and other business interests. Made a trip to Europe in 1911, taking a sonder boat to race for the Emperor's cup at Kiel, which we won. Also motored through Germany, France and England. Was busy all last summer managing the cup defence sloop "Resolute," the race against "Shamrock" not taking place

School	St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H.
Years in College	1891-1892.
Died	Dec. 5, 1898, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Edward Everett, born December 19, 1873, entered into life, December 5, 1898. A young life full of great promise of usefulness has come suddenly to an end. The heir of large wealth, possessed of a fine mind and generous spirit, there seemed to be a bright future before him, but suddenly, like a cloud over a bright sky, all was changed and for months he has faced death, waiting for the end. At last the end has come and the patient watcher's vigil is over. Never was a braver battle fought and never was the mastery of the spirit over the flesh more magnificently proved. Of all the sad household he was the least sad, and the near approach of death troubled him less than the sorrow of his dear ones. Unselfish and noble was his life, and his dying was heroic, bequeathing to his friends and family the memory of a struggle which glorifies death and gives assurance of greater conquests yet to come in that land beyond the sea, where those whom God has tried and found worthy, rest from their labors and await the coming to those who remain.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

After leaving college I took a well-earned rest of a few months and then went to Arizona, with the Congress Gold Co. to take up active mining. Remained there five years, then returned to Chicago. In 1901 I went back to Arizona as assistant secretary and assistant treasurer of the Santa Fe, Prescott and Phoenix Railway Co., later being made secretary-treasurer and director. While in Arizona I became interested in a number of worthy projects, all of which turned out to be liabilities rather than assets. Served a term as president of the Arizona Harvard Club, and am a "Hassayamper" in good standing. In 1910 I resigned from the Railway Co. and moved my family to New York. Am now engaged with Phil. Curtis, '95, and Bart Jacob, '96, in the manufacture of porcelain-enamelled steel ware, under the corporate name, Steel Products Enamelling Co., Inc. Member: Harvard Club of New York, University Club of Chicago, Das Leppe Verein, American Institute of Mining Engineers, Society of Harvard Engineers, Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club.

Since leaving Harvard I have done all sorts of things, none of which has been of the slightest importance to anyone but me. For a year I labored under the pleasant delusion that I was teaching Harvard freshmen something about English composition; then, in the capacity of tutor, I escorted a youth to Europe (he has since been put in jail), and having acquired the habit of being a companion of youth,

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

I became a reader on "The Youth's Companion." A fatal versatility then led me to assist in the surveying of a new road through the Yellowstone National Park, and when I finished with that I helped to edit in Minneapolis a successful trade journal—"The Northwestern Miller." In 1898 I went around the world with Pat Brice, and since then various combinations of circumstances have caused me to live in Mexico, Minnesota, Russia, Finland, and France. In 1910, I returned from a three months' trip through South America—a part of the world so vast, so marvelous, and so new to me that in three short months I was able to acquire very little, except a parrot. All these years have brought me no fame, no fortune, and no family, but they have given me a great deal of experience of both life and death, and I have come to the conclusion that both living and dying are, in their different ways, distinctly worth while. Since writing the above in 1910, I have continued to live in St. Paul, with my mother, until her death three years ago, and since then, alone; that is to say, if one may regard as solitude a household consisting of six dogs, three cats and an obscene parrot. Two years ago I returned to Mexico, expecting to spend the winter on my brother's coffee plantation in the state of Vera Cruz and at his house (rented from the late, if not lamented, Gustavo Madero) in the City of Mexico. But thirty-six hours after I landed, the ten days' bombardment began at the capital and I was unable to go beyond Jalapa. As at that time there did not seem to be any prospect of ever getting to the City of Mexico, I returned to Vera Cruz; and, after several days of watchful sweating with hundreds of other American refugees who had fled from the city, I set sail on a small German freight steamer for Hamburg, and travelled in Europe until the following June. One rarely sees members of '95 in St. Paul and I sincerely hope that any who happen to come here will give me the pleasure of letting me know. I have written: Harvard Episodes, (Copeland and Day, 1897), Diary of a Freshman, (Doubleday, Page and Co., 1901), Viva Mexico! (D. Appleton and Co., 1908), Prejudices, (D. Appleton and Co., 1911).

Occupation	Physician.
Address	129 East 60th St., New York, N. Y.

After leaving Harvard I entered the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York, since incorporated as the medical department of Columbia, where I remained four years, graduating in 1899. I entered Roosevelt Hospital in July, 1899, and served as interne till December, 1900. After a short course in obstetrics at the Lying-in Hospital, I started practice in January, 1901. In April, 1901, Dr. Francis Delafield took me into his office as assistant. His failing health terminated this association in 1913. Throughout this period I kept my own practice and my own office. After leaving the hospital in 1900, I taught anatomy for two years in the College of Physicians and Surgeons and then worked in the Vanderbilt Clinic. Leaving the latter in 1907 I received an appointment at Bellevue Hospital, first in the out-patient department and, since 1911, on the attending staff and in the pathological department. In 1911 I became instructor in medicine in Cornell University Medical School. I have devoted much time to the study of the gross and microscopic changes found at autopsy and to laboratory methods of diagnosis in connection with work at the bedside, both in hospital and private practice, believing that only by such correlation can a physician do the best he is capable of in helping the sick. Married	Juliet Rawle, Atlantic City, N. J.

Children	Benjamin West, June 19, 1909.
Occupation	Lawyer.
Died	Nov. 24, 1912.

Herbert Frazier died of pneumonia on November 24, 1912, after a short illness at his home at Garrison, N. Y. He was born at South Bethlehem, Pa., on October 9, 1872, the son of the late Benjamin West and Alice Frazier. In 1888 he went to St. Paul's School, and from there entered college. After graduation he studied for three years at the Harvard Law School, receiving his degree cum laude. From this time until his death he practised law in New York City, first in the office of Parsons, Shepard and Ogden, and then upon his own account. In 1907 he married Miss Juliet Rawle, who survives him, as does a son, Benjamin West Frazier, born June 19, 1909. He belonged to many clubs at Harvard and in New York: besides others, The Porcellian, Delta Phi, O. K., Hasty Pudding, and Ames-Gray; and, in New York, the Union. He was a man of deep and lasting friendships, to which he brought the fineness of his feelings and the brilliant alertness of his mind, and, above both, his gentleness as a man. His friends were many; and to them his sad death has been a loss most keenly felt.

Taking up my statement as given in the last report, I can thankfully say that the past five years have been of deep and abiding happiness. Increased knowledge of the Scriptures has given me a corresponding knowledge of the ways and Word of God, and of His purposes in redemption through Jesus Christ our Lord. The assurance of my eternal salvation through the precious blood of Christ; the confidence of my acceptance as a son of God, and the daily proof of the care of the Father who guides the path of those who "commit their way to Him," have all tended to give that peace and joy which the world cannot give but which the Scriptures promise will fill the heart that believes God's Word. In these days of doubt and uncertainty, of conflicting opinions, and of restless and changing conditions in the earth, it is a great comfort to know that the Bible is eternally true, and that it is in its entirety the living Word of the living God, "forever settled in Heaven." I heartily commend it to my classmates. It is indeed "a light in a dark place," testifying clearly to the course of this age since the "Light of the World" was put away in the darkness of Calvary, and foretelling the increasing ungodliness and apostasy of the last days which are now thickening about us. My business life has been taken up in the continued trial of cases for the Boston Elevated Railway Company, terminating this my fifteenth and last year. I then expect to begin an agricultural life, as affording a simpler and healthier life both for myself and my family in the enjoyment of which I find many of my happiest hours.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Years in College	1891-1892.
Degrees	LL.B. (Boston University), 1895.
Married	Gladys Louise Raza, Roxbury, Mass., June 2, 1909.
Occupation	Patent Attorney.
Address	(home) Bexley Hall, 52 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge, Mass. (business) 201 Devonshire St., Boston, Mass.

After leaving college I entered Boston University School of Law in September, 1892, and was graduated in 1895, receiving the degree of LL.B. I was admitted to practice as a patent attorney and began practice in Boston, where I have since continued. My practice has been exclusively in patent matters, both United States and foreign, and in corporation matters especially such as pertain to patents and patent rights. I was secretary, 1895, and lieutenant-governor, 1896, of the New Hampshire Society of Colonial Wars; secretary, 1896-1899, and treasurer, 1899-1905, of the New Hampshire Society of the Cincinnati. I am now assistant treasurer and a member of the standing committee of the New Hampshire Society of the Cincinnati, also a delegate from the New Hampshire Society to the General Society of the Cincinnati. I have written the following articles: New Hampshire Society of the Cincinnati (American Historical Register, November, 1894), New Hampshire at the Siege of Louisburg in 1745 (American Historical Register, June, 1895). Member: New Hampshire Society of the Cincinnati.

Born	New Bedford, Mass., Feb. 12, 1873.
Parents	Francis Lyman Gilman, Frances Thomazine Denison.
School	New Bedford High School, New Bedford, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895.
Married	Harriet Frances Hart, New Bedford, Mass., 1896.
Children	Frances Hart, 1897.
Occupation	Assistant General Superintendent, Western Electric Company.
Address	(home) 610 North Euclid Ave., Oak Park, Ill. (business) Western Electric Co., Hawthorne Station, Chicago, Ill.

My life since leaving college has been similar to that in college, practically all work. I have come, in these later years, to see the loss that this necessary condition entailed during college life, in that it prevented my making larger acquaintance among classmates and members of other classes during the four years at Cambridge. After being graduated I spent six years with the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company in Boston, eight years with the Western Electric Company in New York, one year with the American Telephone and Telegraph Company in New York, nearly three years in Kansas City and St. Louis as general manager of the Missouri and Kansas Telephone Company and the Bell Telephone Company of Missouri, and vice-president of the Pioneer Telephone Company of Oklahoma. The 1st of November, 1912, I accepted a position with the Western Electric Company again as assistant general superintendent, in its manufacturing plant at Hawthorne Station, Chicago, Illinois. As appears at once, my work has been connected directly or indirectly all these years with so-called public service activities, and the changing sentiments and conditions within and without such companies have been a continual source of interest and study, more particularly because of my close personal contact with these changes. I often wonder how long it will be before the public will take the same interest in the prices of the necessities of life, which form the majority of its burden, such as food and clothes, as it now takes in the prices charged by so-called public service utilities, which contribute such a small part to the public's burden. During my life in various cities I have come in contact with many Harvard men and have had good opportunity to see the Harvard spirit as it exists in everyday life in several parts of the country. The increasing activity of Harvard men in the shape of Harvard clubs and otherwise, has been very gratifying, because of the very evident good results being secured. Everywhere I have found the exemplification of the Harvard spirit to be replete with democracy and sincerity. I have had particularly good opportunity to form an opinion about this situation because I was charter member of the Harvard Club of New Jersey, Association of Harvard Engineers and Harvard Engineering Society, and when living in Kansas City was for some little time Secretary of the local Harvard Club. Business has taken, and still continues to take, so much of my time that I fear I have not given a proper share to public affairs. This seems to be a fair criticism of many busy men in these days, and this situation is unfortunate for the country. At the present time the only office of honor or trust which I hold is that of trustee of the First Congregational Church of Oak Park, Illinois. Member: University Club of Chicago, Union League Club of Chicago, Westward-Ho Golf Club, Oak Park Country Club, Harvard Club of Chicago, Association of Harvard Engineers, Harvard Engineering Society of New

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Born	Cambridge, Mass., Aug. 21, 1874.
Parents	Francis Brown Gilman, Susan Hood.
School	Cambridge Latin School, Cambridge, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895.
Occupation	Architect.
Address	(home) 3940 McGee St., Kansas City, Mo. (business) 1011 Gloyd Building, Kansas City, Mo.

After leaving college I taught for two years in Boston and New York. This opened the way to study architecture in Paris, which was extended by an interval of teaching and travel in Italy. On returning home, New York seemed the natural place to live and to work on account of the professional friendships made abroad. After several years, for business and family reasons, I moved to Kansas City. In this smaller world, where every man must take an active part, Harvard's interests and its friendships mean more to one, and in them I have found a large part of my pleasures and opportunities. Member: University Club of Kansas City, Mo., Country Club of Kansas City, Mo.

Parents	Hersey Bradford Goodwin, Ellen Christina Hopkinson.
School	Browne and Nichols School, Cambridge, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; A.M., 1896; Ph.D. (Leipzig), 1900.
Married	Isabel Montague Geer, New York, N. Y., Feb. 19, 1914.
Occupation	General Secretary, Chamber of Commerce of U. S. A.
Address	(home) 2141 Wyoming Ave., Washington, D. C. (business) 708 Riggs Building, Washington, D. C.

After graduation I entered the Graduate School, and in June, 1896, received the degree of A.M., having pursued a course in history. For the next two years I was a student at the University of Leipzig, Germany. In the fall of 1898 I began teaching as an assistant in history at Harvard, returning to Germany in the summer of 1899 to be examined for the degree of Ph.D., which I received from the University of Leipzig. I returned to teaching, but on January 1, 1900, I took up the positions of assistant secretary of the National Civil Service Reform League and of the New York Civil Service Reform Association. This took me to New York, and I have been connected with civil service reform work since that time except for a short break in 1901. In 1902 I became the secretary of the two organizations. In addition to my work in New York I was appointed as a lecturer to conduct two courses on municipal government at Harvard College during the second half of 1910. In August, 1912, I became general secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America and took up my residence in Washington, D. C., resigning from the position of secretary of the National Civil Service Reform League and of the New York Civil Service Reform Association. Member: Metropolitan, Cosmos, National Press and Chevy Chase Clubs in Washington; Century, Harvard, City Clubs in New York; St. Botolph and Boston Yacht Clubs in Boston.

I have been to Europe five times since graduation, but only for a few months on each occasion, and have travelled only in the beaten track. Part of each summer I spend at Hancock, New Hampshire, where I have a house and a hundred acres of woods and rocky pasture. During the three academic years, 1910 to 1913, I was lecturer on the Law of Wills in the second year course in the Law of Property at the Harvard Law School, and for part of the last of these years I lectured also in the third year course in the Law of Property. I have written nothing but law briefs and one article on a legal subject, and have held no offices. Recently, I have assisted my father, Professor John C. Gray, in preparing the third edition of his law book, "The Rule Against Perpetuities." I have written: Article in the Harvard Law Review for January, 1913, Vol. 26, p. 212, "Striking Words out of a Will." Member: Union Club of Boston, Harvard Club of Boston.

there at the beginning of the present year, as a result of typhoid fever. During his attendance at the University of Buffalo he organized a chapter of the Delta Chi Fraternity and became its first Chief Justice. Fraternity life had a strong attraction for him, and aside from his profession he found his chief interest in the activities of the various lodges to which he belonged. In visiting and caring for such of their members as were in sickness or in trouble, he was tireless. It was Greenberg's intention to come on to attend the twentieth anniversary reunion in June, and he had been looking forward for some time with pleasant anticipation to seeing his friends and classmates there.

After graduating from college I entered the Harvard Medical School and received the degree in medicine in 1899. During my last year at the Medical School I served as house officer at the Boston Children's Hospital. Immediately after graduation I began the practice of medicine as assistant to Dr. F. Gordon Morrill at Magnolia, Mass., during the summer of 1899. In the fall of 1899 I established my own office at 12 West Cedar Street, Boston, and continued in practice at that location until 1904 when I moved my office to 483 Beacon Street, where it still is. For the past three years I have been associated in partnership with Dr. Frederick E. Garland of the Class of '98. Soon after leaving the Medical School I took up the study of diseases of the nose and throat and have since devoted myself to the practice of this specialty. Much of my experience in this work was acquired in the throat clinics of the Massachusetts General and Children's Hospitals. I have for several years been on the staff of the throat departments of these two hospitals and am at present surgeon in charge of the department at the Children's Hospital. On February 5, 1903, I became engaged to Miss Marion Lockwood of Boston and Lexington. On September 15, 1904 we were married at Lexington. We have four healthy, vigorous children. Until the summer of 1912 we made our home in Boston, but the advantages of country life for a growing family led us in 1911 to buy land and build a house in the country at Oak Hill which is in the southern part of Newton Centre. We moved into this house in June, 1912, and have taken great satisfaction in the change from city to country life. Absolutely uneventful life since leaving college. Have never married and am a member of the firm of Weld, Grew and Co., formed in 1908. Have been a partner in two other stock-brokerage firms since 1901, of which the present firm is a successor. Have lived at home with my parents since leaving college, in Boston in winter and at West Manchester in summer. Weigh fifteen pounds more than when I graduated, but have changed little in appearance otherwise, and would undoubtedly be recognized at once by any classmate who knew me in college. Am a trustee in a small way, but the honors seem to have passed me by. Occupation	Teacher.

Address	(home) 23 South Prospect St., Oberlin, Ohio. (business) Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio.

After graduation I continued my studies at Harvard for three years as a graduate student in botany. During this time I was assistant in botany in Harvard College for one year, 1895-1896, assistant in botany in Radcliffe College for two years, 1895-1897, assistant in botany in the Harvard Summer School of 1897, and in the summer of 1898 was assistant in botany in the Summer School of the Biological Station of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences at Cold Spring Harbor, Long Island. I held the Morgan fellowship at Harvard during the year 1896-1897. In the fall of 1898 I became associate professor of botany in Oberlin College, and in 1900 was made professor of botany, which position I still hold. During 1900-1901 I also acted as registrar of the college. I have written a few botanical notes, and published a "Key to the Trees of the Northern United States," none of them of much importance. During 1909-1910 I spent fourteen months in study and travel in Europe, and I have made rather extensive travels and botanical explorations in this country and Canada. I have found time for little outside of my college activities. But in addition to membership in the clubs and societies listed under general data, I am a director of the Oberlin Alumni Publishing Company, a director of the Ohio Road Machinery Company, a director of the Oberlin Art Association, and a trustee of the Oberlin Kindergarten Training School. Member: Phi Delta Theta, Phi Beta Kappa; Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science; life member of the American Genetic Association; member of the American Naturalists, the National Geographic Society, the Ohio Academy of Science (Vice-President of the Botany Section 1913 and 1915), the New England Botanical Club.

Children	Anne Sargent, April 15, 1909; George Livingston, Jr., June 8, 1914.
Occupation	Teacher.
Address	Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

After leaving college I spent the summer and fall in field work in American archaeology in Ohio and Kentucky, spending the rest of the year in deciding what I did not want to do. I returned to Harvard for the year of 1896-7 to take the degree of A.M. In the summer of 1897 I was connected with a tutoring school at Seal Harbor, Mt. Desert; and during the ensuing year I taught in a girls' boarding school in Morristown, N. J. The next year I was back in Cambridge, and completed my work for my doctor's degree in Romance languages in the winter of 1899 to 1900 at Columbia University, where I was a fellow. I then taught for one year at the University of Cincinnati, after which I spent a year in Paris for study. The year 1902-3 I taught at Trinity College, Durham, N. C., and for the next eight years I spent the time I was not abroad, at the University of Michigan.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

For the last four years I have been assistant professor of Romance languages and literatures at Cornell University. I have published one book, my doctorate thesis, "Chaucer's Indebtedness to Guido delle Colonne's Historia Trojana," and numerous articles and reviews in learned journals on both sides of the water, chiefly in the "Romanic Review," of which I am an editor.

U. S. Army, first at Montauk Point, Long Island, and later went with the First Regular Infantry to Anniston, Alabama. Shortly after resigning I went to Manila, P. I., via the Suez canal, as the captain's guest on the U. S. S. Buffalo. We reached Manila in time for the war between the Filipinos and the United States. Whereas, on the Atlantic Coast I had seen only the sad and serious side of war, in Manila and thereabouts I saw the spectacular and martial side on land and water. In 1899 I settled in Dubuque, Iowa, to practise, and still live and practise there. Rather regularly I have travelled in different parts of the United States and Canada, and in the summer of 1914 made a tour of the principal European surgical clinics. I was among the fortunate ones whose plans and comfort were not disturbed by the war, although returning after things started. Member: Dubuque Club, Dubuque Golf Club, Western Surgical Association, American College of Surgeons, American Medical Association.

My occupation in life is bringing up and supporting a very nice and exceedingly attractive family. Specifications for which are given on page 131 in detail. In order to carry out these functions, I have a job. I am an engineer of the Bell Telephone Company in the State of Pennsylvania and in some of the states adjacent to Pennsylvania. The work in connection with this job consists principally in explaining to the public service commissions of these various states, and to other regulatory bodies, that a corporation that is very, very good and that behaves itself very, very nicely should be allowed to exist. I live in the country, in an extremely attractive house which Jim Purdon built for me. The house is situated on the top of a bare and windy hill, and my principal recreation consists in trying to make trees and bushes grow on this hill, an occupation which, as a horticultural masterpiece, is not a success, but which, as a method of spending money, which I ought to be saving, and of using up time in which I ought to be working, is hard to beat. Member: American Institute of Electrical Engineers, Franklin Institute, Engineers' Society of Pennsylvania, Harvard Club of Philadelphia, Harvard Club of New York, Harvard Club of Boston, Rittenhouse Club, Philadelphia Barge Club, Merion Cricket Club.

Years in College	1892-1895.
Degrees	S.B., 1895.
Married	Georgia E. Brookings, Redlands, Cal., Sept. 16, 1909.
Occupation	Irrigation Developer.
Address	Oakdale, Cal.

Spent one year in irrigation work in Colorado after graduation, and in the fall of 1896 went to the City of Mexico. Spent six years in the republic, principally in construction work in connection with the installation of electric tramways in Mexico City. Returned to Colorado in 1901 and entered irrigation construction and development work with my father, T. C. Henry, continuing the connection until 1911, when I removed to California. During that time, our operations extended to Nebraska, New Mexico and Utah, with our principal field in Colorado. We were instrumental in securing the passage of the irrigation district law modeled on the California "Wright Law," and organized the first irrigation district and sold the first issue of such bonds in Colorado. In September, 1909, I married Miss Georgia Emma Brookings, sister of Walter DuBois Brookings, '95, at Redlands, California. We resided in Denver until removal to California as above stated, in 1911. Spent two years at Sacramento in connection with an irrigation and water project on the Cosumnes River in which I became interested. In 1912 we removed to San Francisco where I took local charge of the headquarters of the Brookings Timber and Lumber Co. during the construction of the mill, railroad, etc., in connection with the new lumbering operations of that company at Brookings, Curry County, Oregon. A change from the bay climate of San Francisco, and Oakland, where we resided, to a milder climate became imperative and in July of the past year I severed, with regret, my business association with the Brookings Company and have recently located at Oakdale, Stanislaus County, California, in the foot-hills on the eastern edge of the San Joaquin Valley. In association with my brother, Lewis W. Henry, '99, I have recently acquired a tract of land on the Stanislaus River, about eight miles above Oakdale, near the old mining town of Knight's Ferry, in the country made famous by Bret Harte. The Oakdale Orchard and Farms Co., a holding corporation, of which I am president and manager, is developing property by completing the irrigation system, clearing, etc., intending to hold a portion permanently and sub-divide and place the balance on the market later. The latch-string of my new home will always be out for any '95 men who venture to this part of the "Golden State" during the 1915 Exposition and thereafter. I have been a member of the University Club of Denver from 1901 to 1911; a charter member and first president of the Mile High Club of Denver, and now an honorary member; member of the Ruskin Club of Denver from 1901 to 1911.

On graduating, I went to New York to assist in the patent department of a telephone company, also taking the first year law at Columbia. In 1896 I moved to Philadelphia with the telephone company and finished my law course at the University of Pennsylvania, getting an LL.B. in 1898, and was admitted to practise in Pennsylvania soon after. In 1899 I returned to Boston and was admitted to practise in Massachusetts. The next nine years I was treasurer of the American Roller Bearing Co., manufacturing automobile axles. In 1908-9 I served as agent of the Massachusetts Commission on Industrial Education, leaving it to become treasurer and general manager of the Ames Plow Co., of Boston and New York, and president of Ames Implement and Seed Co. of Boston, where I have been the past five years. A recent change in the control of this company and its merger with several others leave me without any settled occupation at this writing. Have been a member of the following clubs at various times: Hare Law Club of Philadelphia, Framingham Country Club, Boston City Club, Bos-

Occupation	Dealer in Mortgage Loans to Farmers.
Address	(home) 1630 East 13th Ave., Denver, Col. (business) 730-5 First National Bank Building, Denver, Col.

After commencement, I was employed in various office positions by the wholesale woolen merchants, Faulkner, Page and Co., New York, for one year. In October, 1896, I became cashier and bookkeeper in the New York office of Henry Forster and Co. of Pernambuco, Brazil, export and import commission merchants. In the winter of 1903-4, I was admitted as a partner in the firms of A. D. Hitch and Co., New York, and Henry Forster and Co., Pernambuco, and spent four or five months in East Central Brazil. In 1906 I spent the summer in Germany, Switzerland and Italy to recuperate. In February, 1907, I voluntarily resigned my partnership in the two above-named firms and went to Utah to establish a large peach orchard and farm. In April, 1908, I became a stockholder and salesman and land inspector of the Van Kleeck-Bacon Investment Co. of Denver, Col., dealers in farm mortgages. In 1911 I left the employ of the last named company and organized the Irrigated Farms Mortgage Co., of Denver, of which I am vice-president and manager at the present time. This company lends money to farmers in Colorado, Wyoming and Utah. Member: Rocky Mountain Club, Harvard Club of Denver, Cactus Club of Denver, Denver Chamber of Commerce, Colorado Electric Club of Denver.

CLASS OF 1895—FIFTH REPORT

The "story of my life" was written up to the time of the last report. Since then I have continued in camp work summers, and travel winters. Camp Wildwood has grown to sixty boys and holds a place second to no other camp in the country. It has had on its list of councillors men who are now making a reputation in their various occupations, as doctors, lawyers, ministers and educators. The more I see of these young college men going out to take their places in the world, the more I feel compelled to urge each one to be very sure that he has chosen the one kind of occupation that he will be intensely interested in, and like better than anything else. So many college men spend the first ten years out of college—often the best years of their life, at least the years when they should be laying a thorough foundation in their chosen line of work—in trying out various things, uncertain, and often unable to decide, what they want to do. I believe that the older graduates can often help these younger men to decide on their life-work, and that it is a duty which they should gladly assume. Member: Appalachian Mountain Club, Harvard Club of Boston, Harvard Club of New York.

Address	(home) 200 Forest St., Winchester, Mass. (business) Washington St. and Welles Ave., Boston, Mass.

After receiving my degree in June, 1895, I was elected principal of the Gordon Academy, Ogden, Utah, which position I held one year. Returning to Boston in the summer of 1896, I passed the High School Class A examination. I was then appointed temporary junior master in the Boys' Latin School. I held this position about three months. Shortly after I was appointed assistant in the Robert G. Shaw Elementary School of Boston. From this position I was promoted to the sub-mastership of the Martin Elementary School, Boston, where I remained six years. I was then transferred to a corresponding position in the Henry L. Pierce Elementary School of Dorchester. I served five years as submaster in the Henry L. Pierce School, and then on the retirement of H. Winslow Warren, Harvard, '63, I was elected to the mastership of that school, in 1912. This position I now hold. At the present time, February, 1915, I am president of the Henry L. Pierce Parents' and Teachers' Association, chairman of the executive committee of the Boston Masters' Association, treasurer of the Boston Masters' Dining Association, and president of the Boston Alumni Club of Phi Delta Theta. ing circumstance attended my labors, but no distinguished honors or profits. Since the year 1900 I have made my home by a lake in the Adirondack woods. The winters of the past fifteen years have been divided between studies of art and archaeology in Europe and mining work in California and Mexico. My neighbors in the Adirondack woods, being a rather credulous people, have come to regard me as an engineer, and have entrusted me with various small public improvements. I retain my health, and my faculties seem to work in such undiminished harmony that no major enterprise or talent distinguishes itself; unless it be one for self-dissatisfaction. This talent sometimes works with such energy that I become a grief to myself and my confidants. In such moods I could well write of my life “questo misero modo Tengon l’anime triste di coloro, Che visser senza infamia e senza lodo.” Inf. cant. III.

Studied during the class year of '95-'96 in the Harvard architectural department of the Lawrence Scientific School. Returned in '96 to Chicago, where I was associated with the wholesale hat and cap business of Sweet, Dempster and Co., established by my late father in 1868. Remained with this firm until the business was dissolved the first of January, 1908. Established myself in the interior decorating business in the Fine Arts Building in Chicago the first of September, 1908, and have continued in this line of work ever since.

Occupation	Lawyer.
Address	(home) 909 Oneida St., Denver, Col. (business) 204 Opera House Building, Denver, Col.

I began the practice of law in Denver in the fall of 1898, and still continue it. While always doing a general business, I have pursued more especially liability, life and accident insurance and surety law. This has led me into the defence of personal injury damage cases. I have been moderately successful during the past ten years. My earlier experience was one of difficulty and discouragement. The outlook for the future is encouraging. My home life is happy and satisfying. My two children (two of the triplets) occupy much of my attention. In a few years I hope to see my son follow me to Cambridge, when I shall have special occasion to visit Alma Mater and many of my college mates whom I have not seen in the past seventeen years. I send herewith my cheerful greetings to all my classmates and college friends.

Address	97 William St., Stoneham, Mass.

Upon leaving Harvard I went to Clark University, Worcester, where I remained two years. I next went to the University of Illinois where I was first instructor and then assistant professor of psychology. After two years I went to Germany to study, spending the first semester at Leipsic and the second at Heidelberg. When I returned I took up work at Harvard, spending a part of my time in research and part in teaching. This continued until 1905. From 1903 to 1907 I taught psychology and education at the Sloyd Training School, Boston. As the result of several circumstances, a major one of which was poor health induced by too much mental work, I decided to take up farming here in Stoneham, where I had already lived three years. I began with one cow on my seven acre farm, and gradually developed a market for clean milk, for which I charged an extra cent a quart. Since then I have added materially to my live stock and somewhat to my acreage and farm buildings. Conditions controlling dairy farming in this locality have, however, become increasingly difficult during recent years, and it is quite possible I shall change to some other kind of farming in the near future. I have written: The Fluctuations of Attention, (Supplement to Psychological Review, 1898), Public Worship, a Study in the Psychology of Religion, (Open Court Co., Chicago, 1901), Ueber die Wirkung Kurzer Arbeitszeiten (with E. Kraepelin) (*Psych. On leaving college I worked for about six months in the factory of the Plymouth Cordage Co. In January, 1896, I secured a position with the Boston firm of J. A. & W. Bird and Co., where I remained over two years. In July, '98, I went to Para, Brazil, where I spent two years on the Amazon, just south of the equator. Returning to Boston in 1900, I spent a year there in the office of P. T. Jackson and Co., and again returned to South America in August, 1901, this time to the West Coast, Bolivia. I lived there in the small village of Sorata, when I was not away on some trip to the capital, La Paz, or crossing the Andes to go down to the rubber plantation of the company of which I was general manager. In December, 1902, I was married in the American Legation at Lima, Peru. I came North in May, 1904, but returned to Bolivia in six months and remained there until June, 1909. Shortly after my arrival here I was appointed treasurer of the American Hardpaperware Co., and in 1912 joined the firm of P. T. Jackson and Co., and am still with them as junior partner. I left college in the junior year, owing to ill health, but returned to graduate with '98. I then went back to Europe, where I had previously been studying, and spent several years on modern languages, comparative literature and history. After reading at English and Continental libraries, and attending the Berlin University and the Sorbonne, I took in 1901, the degree of Docteur de l'Université de Paris. During a part of my stay in France I taught, and later made translations for one of the foreign embassies and for the law courts. For a time I was secretary and interpreter to an American paper manufacturer, who was investigating the methods of preserving the forests of Europe. Since coming home I have continued my studies, varying them from time to time with courses in such practical subjects as navigation, the internal combustion engine, the automobile and manual training, and in education. My health has demanded some periods of rest and of out-door life, but these have not been without their compensations, for they have brought me a variety of experiences, among others, for example: as school superintendent in a small rural district; as part owner of a country newspaper; and a summer and winter off the New England coast on a lobster smack. I have made long cruises in small boats, skirting the Atlantic sea-board from Maine to Florida and beyond, written of them for magazines and described them, with lantern slides, at yacht-club smokers. I have been an occasional contributor to newspapers and historical reviews, have compiled and edited books on New England local history and genealogy, and am at present engaged in compiling, editing and publishing, under state appropriation, the Vital Records of the State of Maine. I have acted as a guardian and trustee. Since returning from Europe I have resided in or near Boston; though

Address	96 Dutcher St., Hopedale, Mass.

I have been continuously engaged in secondary education. During these years I have taught in private schools in Philadelphia, Bethel, and Cincinnati; and in the high schools in Littleton and Hopedale. During the six years which I spent in Cincinnati in the Franklin School, I did a great deal of research work in connection with the examinations for admission to college. As a result I have collections of questions which are most helpful in my work. In 1913 I was fortunate enough to discover a solution of the cube root of a binomial surd by algebraic methods. The monotony of school work has been broken by trips to Europe in 1906 and 1910, and by various trips in this country. I have written: Cube Root of a Binomial Surd, (American Mathematical Monthly, Dec., 1913). Member: Roundabout Club.

My twenty years of after college activity have all been spent in the employ of but one transportation company, namely, The Chicago and Northwestern Railway. During this time I have held many minor positions, that few others probably wanted, in as many out of the way places. While traveling freight agent I visited almost every state and territory in the Union, stopping at all of the larger, and most of the smaller cities. Today finds me with the official title of General Eastern Agent with headquarters in New York. My years have been marked by continuous work with only two vacations of over two weeks' duration and at each of those times I seized the opportunity of seeing as much of Europe as one can in a month. A third European trip was cancelled by the war. Aside from my railroad affairs, I have managed to keep up an interest in the old Maine town my paternal ancestors helped to found and where as a boy I spent the summers, and as a director of one of its banks and trustee of its savings bank I've followed a long established family custom. My New York clubs are the Union, Harvard, Arkwright and Piping Rock, and my charitable responsibilities are, as a director of the New York Red Cross Hospital and of the Travellers' Aid Society.

I received the degree of LL.B. from the Harvard Law School in June 1898 and was admitted to the Boston bar in September of that year. I began to practise at once as a student in the offices of the firm of Storey and Thorndike, where I remained as an associate until January, 1902, when I was admitted to the firm as a junior partner, the firm's name being changed to Storey, Thorndike, Palmer and Thayer. I am still a member of this firm, now Storey, Thorndike, Palmer and Dodge, practising in Boston, although my work often takes me to New York and occasionally to states farther West and South. My practice has been almost entirely outside of the courtroom, having to do mainly with the organization of corporations in Massachusetts and other states, the issue of their shares and their bonds and other matters in connection with their formation and the conduct of their legal affairs. Of late, I am sorry to say, I have had to do with a good many receiverships, due in large part I think to the terrible European war now in progress. My first year of married life was spent in Belmont, since which time I have lived in Cambridge. My bachelor summer vacations were spent cruising in small boats on the Maine coast or camping in the Adirondacks. Since marriage I have spent my vacations at Mt. Desert, Seitate, Edgartown or Shelburne, N. H., which is close by the White Mountains. These are all good places having many points to recommend them. Mt. Desert, my wife and I have always regarded as ideal, combining as it does the joys of mountain climbing with the charm of the salt water. Member: Union Club of Boston, Oakley Country Club of

Died	Jan. 26, 1911, at New York, N. Y.

Possessed of good looks and good manners, Shirley Johnson was a man of genial personality, with a warm, hearty greeting and friendly attitude toward all he met. In his speech, actions, and tastes he was typically southern, and though he traced his descent on his father's side from New England Colonial stock, he was in the habit of referring with pride to the fact that he was born a Kentuckian. After leaving college he returned to Louisville, his home, where he engaged in journalism and later became a successful official of the Sun Life Insurance Company. He held various other positions of responsibility, was a member of a number of clubs, including the Harvard Club of Kentucky, and was an active Mason. He wrote, in addition to numerous articles in newspapers and magazines, a report for the Kentucky State Board of Health, 1900-1901, entitled, "Conquering a Small Pox Epidemic in Kentucky," and "The Cult of the Purple Rose—a Phase of Harvard Life." (Badger, Boston, 1902). The writer can bear witness to the fact that our late faithful class secretary, Albert Newman, who was always interested in the efforts of every member of the class of '95, purchased and read the latter book. Johnson had great ambitions but lacked the physical strength required to attain them. When his business career brought him to New York in connection with the banking firm of Fisk and Robinson

Since the prior narrative given in my other reports there has been no great episode. The practice of law has kept me actively and busily engaged since 1904. In 1912 I entered into a partnership for the practice of law under the firm name of Robinson, Marsh and Kaufman. The high points of a law practice are not of general interest. Public office has not been sought. Only yesterday I was thinking that my oldest son was only about four years removed from starting for Cambridge. The element of greater personal supervision which would seem to be coming at Harvard means more to me every day. I realize more every day how necessary a guide is at Harvard. Business men organize their salesmen, personally conduct them through every corner of their plant, assure themselves that the men know all about what they have for sale. If you are selling trained minds, and the opportunity for training, the same rules hold and besides it does the boys some good. Member: Temperance Lodge No. 73, F. and A. M., Sidney, Ohio, Sidney R. GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS KAVEN

Born	Cincinnati, Ohio, July 4, 1865.
Parents	George Kaven, Wilhelmina C. Kaven.
School	High School, Bay City, Mich; Western Reserve Academy, Hudson, Ohio; Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895.
Married	Mary Hannah Howard, Watertown, Mass., April 4, 1900.
Occupation	Lawyer.
Address	Lake Worth, Palm Beach County, Fla.

After leaving college I took the position of deputy clerk of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, Second Circuit, New York City, for about four years. I resigned from that position and took a position with the law department of the Lawyers Title Insurance and Trust Company, which I held for several years. I next quit that work and began in the practice of the law on my own account. In the spring of 1909 I made a business trip to Cuba and the West Indies, and later in the summer of the same year I made a business trip to Cobalt, Canada. While there I contracted typhoid fever in that fever-laden camp, and on my arrival in New York I took to bed and remained there for about four months. I had a very severe attack, and when I was again able to be on my feet, I took a trip abroad, to England and the continent and remained absent for about a year, partly on business and partly to recuperate. I returned toward the end of the year 1910 and again took up the practice of the law. Dissatisfied with business conditions in New York, I came down to Florida to practise law. I was admitted to the Florida bar in October, 1913, and have been located in Lake Worth, Palm Beach County, Florida, for eighteen months.

Born	Ridgefield, Conn., March 3, 1867.
Parents	Aaron C. Keeler, Emma Hart.
School	Williston Seminary, Easthampton, Mass.
Years in College	1892-1895.
Degrees	S.B., 1895.
Married	Georgia Goss Townsend, Lysander, N. Y., Sept. 4, 1907.
Children	Mary Townsend, June 2, 1910 (died June 15, 1910); (a girl), Feb. 14, 1915.
Occupation	Farmer.
Address	Ridgefield, Conn.

Mr. Keeler writes that he has nothing to add to his last report which was as follows: During the past few years I have been teaching at Ridgefield, Connecticut, for the most part tutoring. I must confess I have not cultivated membership in learned societies. The only one to which I belong is the Connecticut Harvard Club. Under the head of foreign countries visited I will mention a winter in Italy and a summer in Canada. A summer in Canada is worth mentioning if it is spent along the St. Lawrence between Kingston and Brockville. Since my marriage I have built a bungalow, one of the all-the-year round kind. During past five years, life uneventful.

Occupation	Minister.
Address	The Tudor, Joy and Beacon Sts., Boston, Mass.

Since the last report I have continued in charge of the Church of the Epiphany in Dorchester, where I began work in the fall of 1907. The work has grown rapidly. In 1908 we built a parish house and chancel of a new church, and in January, 1915, we dedicated the new church. I have during this time taken a trip around the world with my wife, occupying nearly a year and gave especial attention to our mission stations in China and Japan.

As I write this, I have just had the fun of being for the fifth time, the beadle of our Quincy Twelfth Night Revels: picturesque pageant, vivid vaudeville, select supper, delightful dancing, the "maddest merriest" of frolics. I have continued to live in Quincy with my parents, and have done business in Boston. In 1907, I took the lecture course at the Boston School for Social Workers, and for a number of years I put in the major part of my time as a volunteer social worker; but now as my father is taking a little less active part in his various interests, I am giving up some of these activities and putting more time into business. I am president of the Summit Thread Company, assistant treasurer of the Pocahontas and King Coal Companies, treasurer of the Quincy Real Estate Trust, vice-president of the Granite Trust Company, director of the Quincy Mutual Fire Insurance Co., vice-president of the Massachusetts Anti-Saloon League and the Quincy Y. M.

Address	(home) 27 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, Mass. (business) 38 Equitable Building, Boston, Mass.

After leaving college I attended the Harvard Law School for three years and was admitted to the Massachusetts bar. I was given desk room and work by Lowell, Smith and Lowell, lawyers, in Boston. That next summer I was abroad and visited England and Russia, also passing through Germany and Holland. The small family party I was with entered Russia through eastern Prussia and left via Warsaw, Mlava, Deutsch-Eylau, and Marienburg; so I saw a lot of the country where the eastern conflict between Germany and Russia is now being fought. In the fall of 1899 I began to share an office with J. W. Dunlop, '97; this continued until the spring of 1901, I meanwhile doing considerable work for Lowell, Smith and Lowell, who had offices near by. Since then I have been more or less loosely connected with that firm, for several years one might say, a purely physical connection. The year following our quindecennial was a busy one for me; but since then I have been able to do but little work, having been ill and unable to go away on account of the prolonged illness and death of my father and others of the elder members of my family. Member: Harvard Law School Association, Boston Bar Association, Massachusetts Bar Association, American Bar Association, Harvard Club of Boston, Harvard Club of New York, Tennis and Racquet Club of Boston, Eastern Yacht Club, Boston Yacht Club, Corinthian Yacht Club of Marblehead, Manchester Yacht Club.

Degrees	A.B., 1895 (1901).
Occupation	Lawyer.
Died	Aug. 20, 1912, New York, N. Y.

John Mack was born October 6, 1872 in New York City, and after an illness of six months died at the same place, August 20, 1912. While in college he was prominent in journalism and was editor of both the "Advocate" and the "Lampoon." After graduation he became assistant editor of the "Youth's Companion." He held the latter position for two years and then entered the Law School of Boston University. Upon being admitted to the Massachusetts bar, he practised law in Boston for several years, removing in 1905 to New York, where he continued in his profession until the time of his death. Of a cheerful and sympathetic temperament, John Mack, early in his college career drew closely to himself all those about him. His interest in his friends and in the life around him was keen. Naturally democratic, he was at home with all kinds of people, and his quick wit and strong sense of humor, together with his gift for picturesque phrasing, made him rare good company. Political situations especially appealed to him, and while never in active political work, he was a close observer of public events and possessed accurate knowledge of the men and issues involved. His high character and loving personality have made his death a distinct loss in the lives of all who knew him.

ALBERT MANN

Born	Two Rivers, Wis., Jan. 26, 1872.
Parents	Leopold Mann, Clara Mann.
School	Cambridge Latin School, Cambridge, Mass., and Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895.
Married	Helen Lacy Baker, Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 1, 1902.
Children	Howard Baker, July 28, 1906.
Occupation	Manufacturers Agent of Electrical Specialties.
Address	(home) 45 Sewall St., West Newton, Mass. (business) 137 High St., Boston, Mass.

After graduation I worked in shops of the Western Electric Company in Chicago, Claussen and Bonwell in St. Paul, Minnesota, and Two Rivers Manufacturing Company, Two Rivers, Wisconsin. In 1896 opened an office in Buffalo for electrical construction work. In the spring of 1902 sold the electrical construction business in Buffalo and accepted a position with John A. Roebling's Sons Co. of New York, as their New England agent, with headquarters at 220 Franklin Street, Boston. In May, 1910, became New England sales manager for Hart and Hegeman Manufacturing Co. and the National Metal Molding Co., with office at 137 High Street, Boston. Since then I have added to my agencies the McGill Manufacturing Co., the Detroit Fuse and Manufacturing Co. and the H. T. Paiste Co. Member: Harvard Clubs of Boston and New York, and life member of the Association of Harvard Engineers.

Occupation	Note Broker.
Address	(home) Great Neck, L. I., N. Y. (business) 38 Wall St., New York, N. Y.

Since our last report demands of business have kept me constantly at work, and I have had little time or opportunity for travel or recreation. On July 1, 1907, my old firm of Mann, Bill and Co. was enlarged to Mann, Bill and Ware, and Leonard E. Ware '99, was admitted to the firm. I was admitted to the New York Stock Exchange on July 17, 1907. I am sorry I have nothing to add of interest to my classmates, but with the exception of the summer of 1912, which I spent in England, my nose has been close to the grindstone. I have to record with deep regret the death of my partner Leo Ware '99, which occurred this last December. Member: Harvard Club of New York, Sons of the Revolution, New York.

Address	(home) 207 West 55th St., New York, N. Y. (business) Columbia University, New York, N. Y.

Since the last report I have kept on with my teaching work at Columbia University, and with lecturing and writing about music. Every summer I spend in composing. Getting a leave of absence, I spent the year from May 31, 1913, to May 1, 1914, with my wife in Europe, chiefly in France. We hired half a little villa for two months in the summer of 1913 in Boffres (Ardèche), a small mountain village served by a railroad usually out of order, where no English or Americans had apparently ever been seen before. We went there because I wished to study with M. Vincent D'Indy, whose château is there. We got very fond of the natives of the place, simple, hard-working people. The sons of the farmer near our villa, from whom we got eggs, and of the woman from whom we rented the villa also, were affected by the three-years' military service law, which they felt was forced by Germany, and the women cried as they told my wife about it. The boys were nice, clean fellows. I suppose a good many of them are killed by now. Quite a different class of people we also saw much of, visiting them in their country houses in Normandy and near Lyons, and also seeing them in Paris, where we spent the winter. Two of these young men, one a promising doctor, have been killed. I have published several new compositions since the last report, and my Quartet for Piano and strings, opus 7, has been played in Boston by the Kneisel Quartet, with Ossip Gabrilowitsch as pianist. During the year in France I wrote a symphony. It seems foolish to potter away at art when the finest things in the world are being smashed at wholesale and the spirit that produced them smothered by commercialism and its attendant militarism. I have written: From Grieg to Brahms, (Outlook Company, 1902), Beethoven and His Forerunners, (Macmillan, 1904), The Romantic Composers, (Macmillan, 1906), The Appreciation of Music, (H. W. Gray Co., 1907), A Guide to Music, (Doubleday, Page and Co., 1909).

Address	(home) 138 Hilldale Road, Lansdowne, Pa. (business) 12th and Brown Sts., Philadelphia, Pa.

In the fall of 1895 I entered the employ of The Guyer Hat Co., manufacturers of men's soft and derby hats. About a year later I obtained some interest in the company, becoming its secretary. In September, 1906, I became its treasurer. On account of hard labor conditions I moved my business in 1908 to Philadelphia, and in 1914 bought out a competitor, forming the Guyer-Roelofs Co., of which I am treasurer. In political and social life I have taken no

Address	(home) "Merlebrook", Bedford Hills, N. Y. (business) 80 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

On April 14, 1910—shortly before the publication of the last report—I was elected president of the Union Trust Company of New York, and I have continued in this position ever since. In the past five years I have been elected a director of the Hanover National Bank and of the National Park Bank of New York, the Missouri Pacific Railway and the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern Railway, the Western Union Telegraph Company, the Electric Bond and Share Company and the Washington Water Power Company, and have been acting as a United States trustee for several foreign insurance companies. I have also been identified with a number of reorganization committees, such as usually fall to the lot of New York bankers in years of financial depression. I have just been elected president of the Trust Companies Association of the State of New York for a second term. I have become identified with a good many charitable organizations of New York and am serving as treasurer of the Children's Aid Society and as a trustee of the Greenwich Savings Bank of New York. My only contact with educational work has been as a member of the board of directors of the Brearley School for girls, which has had a very successful career under James G. Croswell, Harvard, '73, as head master. In addition to the clubs, etc., enumerated in the last report I am a member of: The Union Club and Metropolitan Club, both of New York; the Tennis and Racquet Club of Boston; and for the past three years I have been a member of the board of managers of the Harvard Club of New York.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

I am still a member of the firm of Merriman Brothers, with office and factory at 185 Amory Street (Jamaica Plain), Boston. Although we do some other manufacturing, we have specialized for several years in pulley blocks and other fittings for yachts. We have achieved some reputation in this line, and designed and made the blocks and some other fittings for all three of the boats that were built to defend America's Cup in 1914. We have also been interested in developing bearings or bushings for pulleys and machinery, which are self-lubricating, i.e., do not require oil. Occupation	Commercial Engineer.
Address	(home) 70 Broad St., Newark, N. J. (business) 30 East 42d St. (Pennsylvania Cement Co.), New York, N. Y.

My first summer out of college I worked in Paterson Street Railway shops without pay to get experience. In the fall of 1895 I went to Saint John's School, Manlius, N. Y., as teacher of Latin and French, as I had some pressing debts I wished to pay off. June, 1896, to August, 1896, I tutored in Col. Alfred Wagstaff's family in Babylon, L. I. Having cleared up the most pressing of my debts, I entered into commercial life again, and secured a position as rodman in the chief engineer's corps of the Erie Railroad. I was with them about three years, and got a practical insight and experience in railroad building, and was promoted to levelman. January 1, 1899, I was employed by the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co. and sent to their works at East Pittsburgh, Pa., to take the student course; earned 16 cents per hour. Went through the various departments, ending in the testing room. Was there about a year and then transferred to their New York office as commercial engineer and salesman. Remained with them until they went into the hands of a receiver in 1908 at which time I left them and went into business for myself. I became manufacturer's agent in charge of specific territory; spent three years as such in Philadelphia. Have handled a number of accounts, all along engineering and machinery lines; spent considerable time in the vacuum-cleaning field, mostly large stationary plants piped permanently in buildings, delivered a lecture on vacuum cleaning before the Architectural Club in Washington, D. C. by invitation. Since the vacuum-cleaning field has practically died out, the stationary plants to a great extent having been forced out by the portable cleaners, I have gone back to the electrical engineering field and hope soon to have a consulting practice. with Dobson and Barlow, Ltd., cotton machine manufacturers, Bolton, England. In September, 1898, employed as a salesman by Stoddard, Haserick and Richards, importers of cotton and woolen machinery, Boston, Mass. On January 1, 1899, employed by the firm of F. S. Moseley and Company, note-brokers, Boston, Mass. Remained in their Boston office until November, 1900, and was then sent to New York to open an office for their account. On January 1, 1902, was admitted to this firm as a partner. In October, 1906, gave up business and went to Santa Barbara, California. On January 1, 1907, severed my connection with the firm of F. S. Moseley and Company. In September, 1907, started a note-broking business on my own account at 31 Nassau Street, New York City. On December 1, 1910, formed the firm of Mills and Stewart, to transact a loan, note, bond and stock business. This business has been moderately successful and our present office is at 61 Broadway, New York City. Member: Harvard Club, Tennis and Racquet Club, University Club, Richmond County Country Club, Downtown Association, all in New York City.

school. In July, 1896, I joined with W. E. Clark, '95 in forming the firm of Clark and Mills, electrical engineers and contractors, with office in Cambridge. Later an office was opened in Boston, also; and January 1, 1903, we formed, with one other associate, the corporation of Clark and Mills Electric Co. to expand and continue the business. Since organization I have been vice-president of the corporation. From a small start business has grown from year to year and is at the present time well established in both of the above-named cities. Of late years I have taken an interest in economic and social problems. My avocation is farming, and I own a farm in Marshfield, Mass., on which strawberries are grown in marketable quantity and where my family renews its vitality during the summer months. WILLIAM BROOKS MOULTON

Born	Bloomington, Ill., March 28, 1871.
Parents	Cheney Moulton, Mary Wallace.
School	High School and Illinois State Normal University, Normal, Ill.
Years in College	1893-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895.
Married	Alice Grady, Stratford, Ontario, July 22, 1914.
Occupation	Lawyer.
Address	(home) 5714 Kenwood Ave., Chicago, Ill. (business) 105 South La Salle St., Chicago, Ill.

On leaving Cambridge, I entered a law office in Chicago; later became a member of the firm of Catlin, Moulton and Webber, which continued as Catlin and Moulton until 1902. Since then have been in practice alone. Office with Morton D. Hull of Class of '89. Have had much litigation in connection with railroad rate matters. In one case, East Side Packing Co. vs. The Vandalia Railroad, I secured a decision from the Supreme Court of Illinois that the car rental charges made by railroads was an illegal charge. The revenues from this source to the railroads in the Chicago Switching District was estimated to be from $30,000 to $40,000 per day. After establishing myself I followed Professor Hart's advice and endeavored to do what I could in a practical way in behalf of some phase of good government. I concluded that specialization in your avocation was as necessary as in your vocation. The cause of civil service reform had always interested me. Believing that the only practical way to accomplish a reform was from within, I became an active member of the local Republican organization, also I became a member and then president of the Illinois Civil Service Association, organized to secure the passage of a state civil service law. As an active member of the party organization I was elected a delegate to the Republican state convention of 1904 and was chosen a member of the committee on resolutions, representing the 2nd congressional district of Chicago. Very much to my surprise, I was enabled, after a single-handed fight, to secure the adoption of a plank in the Republican state platform of 1904, pledging the Republican party to a state civil service law. The legislature elected that year passed the law and Governor Dineen appointed me as president of the first commission provided for its enforcement. About the same time I was made a member of the council of the National Civil Service Reform League, of which Elliot Goodwin of our class was then secretary. It is quite remarkable how the class of '95 has become identified with this work. At a meeting of the National Civil Service Reform League in Milwaukee a few years ago I was present as president of the Illinois Civil Service Commission; Elliot Goodwin was the most active and efficient secretary of the league; Alford W. Cooley represented the National Civil Service Commission as its president, and Professor John A. Fairlie represented Michigan—all of the class of '95. I have written articles and reports on civil service matters. Member: Union League Club of Chicago, City Club of Chicago, Chicago Bar Association, Chicago Legal Club, National Civil Service Reform League, Illinois Civil Service Association, Kenwood Country Club, Harvard Club of Chicago.

CLASS OF 1895—FIFTH REPORT

Thomas Patrick Mullins

Born	Cambridge, Mass., April 10, 1871.
Parents	Thomas Mullins, Ellen Baldwin.
School	Cambridge Latin School, Cambridge, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895.
Died	Jan. 5, 1915.

Throughout his college course, Thomas Patrick Mullins lived at his home in Cambridge. After taking his degree he entered the Law School where he spent three years. His studious habits and devotion to his work, gave every promise that he would have a successful career in his chosen profession. But his ambitions were early thwarted by the appearance of the illness which finally resulted in his death.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Naturally of a retiring disposition he found his greatest solace almost entirely in his books; but his friends and those of his classmates who knew him, will long remember him for his honorable and upright bearing, his loyalty and his strength of character.

Occupation	Telephone Engineer.
Address	(home) 4 Broad St., Salem, Mass. (business) 50 Oliver St., Boston, Mass.

After leaving college I went into the business of shoe manufacturing, first in Beverly, Mass., and finally in New Hampshire. Our plant was in the town of Barnstead; but I lived in Pittsfield. I remained there about four years and after the death of my father, returned to Salem, having first given up my business. After my return to Salem I entered the employ of the Erie Telephone and Telegraph Co. in October, 1901. I remained there until March, 1904, when I went into the New England Company where I have been ever since. My first job in the New England Company was as auditor of supplies. Later I was made superintendent of the contract department, and I am now commercial engineer. Member: Salem Golf Club, Harvard Club of Boston.

Occupation	Banker.
Died	March 12, 1915, Concord, Mass.

The Class of 1895 record their tribute to the high character and devoted service of their Secretary, Albert Harding Newman, whose death on the twelfth day of March, 1915, is to every one of us a personal bereavement. Born in Athol, Mass., December 6, 1872, he was descended from New England families who by force of character and intellect achieved leadership. His father, Albert Lee Newman, after a successful career as a banker in Athol was in the last ten years of his life President of the Commonwealth National Bank of Boston. His grandfather, Honorable George Newman, was a manufacturer of paper-mill machinery at Brattleboro, Vermont, in partnership with the late Gouverneur Morris of New York. He served his town as selectman, town treasurer, and member of the Legislature. For many years he was President of the local savings bank. Known throughout southern Vermont to be "square" as well as efficient, he settled more estates in Windham County than any other man of his time. Albert's mother, Ella Maria Harding, was the daughter of Honorable Alpheus Harding, a member of the General Court and President of the National Bank of Athol. Her grandfather was the Reverend Alpheus Harding, graduate of Dartmouth College in the class of 1805, forty years pastor of one church, and during that period twice a member of the General Court. His mother was Sybil Adams, of Medway, fifth in direct line from Henry Adams, the grandfather of President John Adams. Coming to Boston at the age of ten, Albert prepared for college at the English High School. In 1889-1890 he was Colonel of the Boston School Regiment. His college life was marked by high scholarship and wide and sympathetic friendliness. Living in Holworthy Hall he made his room a pleasant meeting-place where his friends were always welcome. He never seemed to have duties to keep him from friendly talk, yet his work was never neglected, as the rank list of every course he took bore his name. Having three bankers in his immediate ancestry, he early bent his purpose to that profession. In Sophomore English composition he wrote a history of banking which won him high rank in that difficult course. At graduation his degree was magna cum laude, with Honorable Mention in economics and history. He was a member of the Phi Beta Kappa, Delta Upsilon and Pi Eta societies. His election to the office of Class Secretary, near the close of the senior year, was a fortunate choice. To this work he gave for twenty years the most painstaking care and attention to detail. Indeed he gave much more than this, for he tried with affectionate interest to follow the career of every '95 man in any and every part of the world. Upon the last day of his life he was engaged in the preparation of this fifth report. Immediately after graduation he entered the Boston office of Kidder, Peabody and Company. In February, 1898, he became a member of the firm of Blodget, Merritt and Company, bankers, which later became Blodget and Company, to whose activities he devoted the remainder of his business life. There he was a wise and conservative counsellor, whose opinions were based upon knowledge. He helped many without profit to himself and he accepted the burden of numerous positions of private trust. In the town of Concord, where he had lived since 1906, he was Trustee of Town Donations. On October 18, 1897, he married Jeanie Stevens Smith, sister of our classmate, Jerome Carruth Smith. Besides Mrs. Newman, three children survive him—Albert Lee, born December 9, 1898; Harding Carruth, born August 20, 1903; and Dorothea, born July 2, 1911. A boy, Carl Whipple, born September 3, 1900, died in infancy. Albert had often considered retiring from business in order to enjoy out-of-door life and travel, but his business associations were so pleasant and his work so congenial that he was reluctant to give them up. In 1914 his energy, formerly spontaneous, had to be summoned by effort of the will, but his closest friends thought only that he had been too sparing of vacations. As the months went on a physician, whose aid he sought, gave him the definite and final word that no permanent help was possible. In one moment he passed from slight concern to certainty of death, although with no expectation that it would come so soon. It was after this that he called a meeting of the '95 Class Committee and reminded them that it was quite time to start plans for our Vicennial Celebration. This meeting at the Exchange Club was his last trip down town. Yet even to the friends who saw him then he gave no hint. There was no shadow of farewell. The last weeks he passed in visiting and receiving visits, in planning friendly meetings, in the usual cordialities of a wide and intimate circle of friends. His house was in order. One evening his heart ceased beating. Thus he was spared the lingering illness which he had dreaded. His character found expression in his firm but gentle face, his calm, sweet manner, and in the combination of personal dignity with charming comradeship. He had a buoyancy of spirits and a cordiality of manner which were a great attraction. He was fond of social life. His sense of humor was keen. He treasured amusing anecdote and kindly fun. Of intense loyalty to his friends and perfect courtesy to all, he possessed the admiration, respect and love of all who knew him. The memory of him as one whose every impulse was generous and every act unselfish will abide with the class until their last reunion.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

I spent my first three years after graduation in studying law at the Harvard Law School. In September, 1898, I was admitted to the Massachusetts bar and immediately entered the law department of the City of Boston, as one of the assistant city solicitors (afterward called assistant corporation counsel). I remained in that office, with gradually increasing responsibilities, until March 1, 1909, when I resigned and entered private practice in Boston. On June 1, 1909, I went into partnership with Samuel H. Hudson, under the name of Hudson and Nichols, and have continued since then in the practice of the law at my present address as a member of this firm. I have specialized to a considerable extent upon taxation, eminent domain and other matters of municipal law, and have devoted my spare moments to writing treatises on these subjects. I lived in Boston until 1909, but since then I have been a resident of Newton. I have written: Books: "Land Damages in Massachusetts," (Wm. J. Nagel, 1907), "The Power of Eminent Domain," (Boston Book Co., 1909), "Taxation in Massachusetts," (Financial Publishing Co., 1913). Articles: "Eminent Domain and Taxation in Modern American Law," (Blackstone Institute), "Eminent Domain in Ruling Case Law," (Edward Thompson Co.) Member: Boston Athletic Association, Harvard Club of Boston.

Address	(home) 30 Francis Ave., Cambridge, Mass. (business) 57 Court St., Boston, Mass.

After taking the A.M. degree in 1896, I was assistant in English at Harvard for one year. Then I spent two years at Berlin and Paris, studying at the universities, with incidental travel. Returning to Cambridge, I was instructor in English at Harvard from 1899 to 1904. After two years of University Extension lecturing, I gave up teaching, and I have since devoted most of my time to writing. Since 1907, I have been vice-president and member of the board of investment of the North End Savings Bank, Boston. I have edited, with introduction and notes, Coleridge's Ancient Mariner, (Globe School Book Co., 1900). I have written: The Enjoyment of Art, (Houghton, Mifflin Co., 1903), The Gate of Appreciation, (Houghton, Mifflin Co.,

HARVEY OFFICER

Born	St. Paul, Minn., April 5, 1872.
Parents	Harvey Officer, Henrietta Low Paterson.
School	St. Paul High School, St. Paul, Minn.
Years in College	1893-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; B.D. (General Theological Seminary), 1899.
Occupation	Minister.
Address	Holy Cross, West Park, N. Y.

The report which was published in 1910 records sixteen men, connected with our class, as engaged in the work of the Christian ministry. As I am one of this small company it has interested me to look up their histories. Of these sixteen, ten are doing active work in the Episcopal Church. I can, however, make a rather unique claim, a distinction, not of worldly honor, but of my own choice; namely,—that I am the only monk in the class. The Order of Holy Cross, to which I belong, was founded by a Harvard man, James O. S. Huntington, '75. I became a member of the order in 1906, having spent eight years in various ministries, chiefly in St. Paul, Minnesota and in Princeton, N. J. Since entering the order my work has been mainly that of a mission preacher. During the nine years since I put on the cowl I have been university preacher at Harvard, Williams, Pennsylvania, Chicago. Brown and Gambier, and have done similar, though unofficial, work at Cornell, Dartmouth and Columbia.

RAPHAEL DORMAN O'LEARY

Born	Burlington, Kan., Sept. 19, 1866.

Married	Mathilde Augusta Henrichs, Humboldt, Kan., Aug. 19, 1896.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Children	Dorman Henrichs, June 23, 1897; Paul Martin, Nov. 29, 1901; Theodore Morgan, Dec. 28, 1910.
Occupation	Teacher.
Address	(home) 1106 Louisiana St., Lawrence, Kan. (business) University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kan.

I have been teaching English in the University of Kansas since my graduation from Harvard, with the rank of associate professor since 1901. My present title is that of associate professor of rhetoric. My teaching has been uninterrupted, except that I spent the year of 1910-11 in Europe, with my family,—most of the time at Oxford, where my two boys attended the Oxford High School for Boys, while I did some reading at the Bodleian Library, and attended some lectures. The later months of our stay in Europe we spent in travel on the continent, seeing a little of Belgium, spending about a month in Munich, and the remaining weeks in Switzerland and Paris. I have written: An article in The English Journal for Nov., 1912, "Pity the Poor Teacher." An article in The Sewanee Review, Jan., 1913, "The Most Empirical of the Professions." An article in The Sewanee Review, Jan., 1914, "Louis Pasteur." An article in The International Journal of Ethics, Jan., 1914, "Swift and Whitman as Exponents of Human Nature." An article in The Sewanee Review, Jan., 1915, "Culture." Member: Phi Beta Kappa, University of Kansas; University Club, Lawrence, Kansas; Modern Language Association of America, National Council of Teachers of English, Faculty Tennis Club, Lawrence, Kan.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Degrees	A.B., 1895; M.D. (University of Pennsylvania), 1898; L.R.C.P. (London), 1900; M.R.C.S. (England), 1900.
Occupation	Physician.
Address	(home) Jenkintown, Pa. (business) 2025 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

1895-1898, Medical School, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia; 1898-1900, resident physician Presbyterian Hospital, Philadelphia; 1900-1901, studying medicine, London, Paris and Vienna; 1901-1902, practising medicine, Philadelphia; 1902-1913, at first employed by, and later member of firm of Ostheimer Brothers, Philadelphia and Paris, import and export commission merchants. In connection with business I have been in France, Germany and England once a year. 1913, resumed practice of medicine with intention of making a specialty of mental and nervous diseases, and associated with Dr. D. J. McCarthy, 2025 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, who is Professor of Medical Jurisprudence at the University of Pennsylvania Medical School. I am assisting Dr. McCarthy in his private and hospital work and am also examiner of the insane at the Philadelphia General Hospital. From my experience I would consider it unwise for the average man who has been educated for medicine to go into business. I have translated: From the French "Baudry's Traumatism of the Eye, and their Medico-legal Aspect." Member: University Club of Philadelphia, Harvard Club of Philadelphia, Harvard Club of New York, Huntingdon Valley Country Club, Pine Valley Golf Club, A. M. P. O. Medical Fraternity.

Degrees	A.B., 1895; LL.B., 1898.
Married	Martha Robeson Phillips, Beverly, Mass., June 23, 1910.
Children	Andrew James, Jr., April 18, 1911; Alanson Tucker, Jan. 12, 1913; John Phillips, Oct. 18, 1914.
Occupation	Lawyer.
Address	(home) South St., Jamaica Plain, Mass. (business) 53 State St., Boston, Mass.

After graduating from the Harvard Law School in 1898, I practised law in the City of Boston, for some years in association with Alexander Whiteside, and later by myself. In 1902 I served as a member of the Massachusetts legislature in the lower house and in the years 1904 and 1905 in the State Senate. In the Congress of the United States I served four terms from Massachusetts,—a service which commenced in 1907 and lasted nearly eight years. For the last two terms I served on the Ways and Means Committee, and so took an active part in the preparation and passage of the Underwood tariff act. In August, 1914, I resigned from congress on appointment as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

PHILIP DeWITT PHAIR

Born	Presque Isle, Me., Jan. 1, 1871.
Parents	James Phair, Eliza Ann Gallagher.
School	St. John's School, Presque Isle, Me.
Years in College	1894-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; A.M., 1896; B.Letters (Trinity College), 1894; LL.B. (George Washington University), 1909.
Married	Bertha McIntyre, Presque Isle, Me., Jan. 2, 1905.
Occupation	Lawyer.
Address	Presque Isle, Me.

I remained as a graduate student at Harvard University from 1895 to 1897, receiving the A.M. degree in 1896. I was instructor in political science at Trinity College from 1897 to 1899, and from 1899 to 1910 was employed in the library of Congress, division of documents. I attended the Law School of George Washington University from 1905 to 1909, receiving the LL.B. degree in June, 1909, and was admitted to the bar of the District of Columbia in 1909, and to the bar of the State of Maine in 1910. I have practised law in Presque Isle, Maine, since 1910. I represented the Trinity College Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa at the triennial convention held at William and Mary College in 1907. I was delegate from Maine to the national Republican convention at Chicago, 1912. I have contributed numerous

STEPHEN WILLARD PHILLIPS

Born	Honolulu, H. I. Jan. 9, 1873.
Parents	Stephen Henry Phillips, Margaret Duncan.
School	Salem High School, Salem, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; LL.B., 1898.
Married	Anna Pingree Wheatland, Salem, Mass., June 15, 1899.
Children	Stephen, Sept. 27, 1907.
Occupation	Lawyer.
Address	(home) 34 Chestnut St., Salem, Mass. (business) 10 Post Office Square, Boston, Mass.

After graduation I returned to Cambridge for three years at the Law School where I took my degree in '98. June 15, 1899, I married Anna Pingree Wheatland and settled in Salem, Massachusetts, which was the home both of my own and my wife's family and where I have continued to live ever since. I have an office in the Delta Building, 10 Post Office Square, Boston, where I have been for many years.

CLASS OF 1895—FIFTH REPORT

Ellerton James of the class and I have offices together but are not associated in business. I am interested in various public and charitable affairs in Salem and devote a good deal of my time to their interests, serving as director and treasurer of several. Though I have never been what one would call active in politics, I have taken considerable interest in them at times. I was two years in the Salem city government and later for two years (1905-6), was a member of the Massachusetts Legislature. My principal amusement is research and study into the local history and traditions in which Salem is so rich. Formerly I travelled a good deal, but now I spend my winter at home in Salem, going to Boston every day to my business, and the summer I pass partly nearby at Topsfield and partly in New Hampshire, where I go for a vacation.

ARTHUR STANWOOD PIER

Born	Pittsburgh, Pa., April 21, 1874.
Parents	William Stanwood Pier, Alice Moore.
School	St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895.
Married	Elise Riché Hall, Boston, Mass., Nov. 4, 1909.
Children	Mary, April 4, 1911 (died April 7, 1911); Arthur Stanwood, Jr., Nov. 27, 1912.
Occupation	Editor and Author.
Address	(home) Brush Hill Road, Hyde Park, Mass. (business) The Youth's Companion, Boston, Mass.

Since 1896 I have been a member of the editorial staff of "The Youth's Companion." Such a continuous term of service in one office does not present material for an interesting biographical sketch. Variety of domicile rather than of occupation has spiced my life. I can claim a residential knowledge of Cambridge, Boston, Dedham, Weston, and Milton. In this last place, I seem now to be permanently established. I have written: The Pedagogues, 1899; The Sentimentalists, 1901; The Triumph, 1903; Boys of St.

CHARLES SUMNER PIERCE

Born	Milton, Mass., Sept. 5, 1874.
Parents	Edward Lillie Pierce, Elizabeth Helen Kingsbury.
School	Roxbury Latin School, Boston, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; LL.B., 1900.
Married	Caroline Ware Merriam, Weston, Mass., March 7, 1908.
Children	Henry Lillie, Jan. 2, 1909.
Occupation	Lawyer.
Address	(home) 224 Adams St., Milton, Mass. (business) North Station, Boston, Mass.

Worked for two years as a laborer in the Potomska Mills, New Bedford, learning the cotton manufacturing business; but gave that up and went to the Law School. After graduating in 1900 I entered the office of Gaston, Snow and Saltonstall in Boston, and remained there a year. Then opened an office of my own, but soon became associated with the law department of the Boston and Maine Railroad. Have given substantially all my time for ten years to that work and as town counsel of Milton. Appointed general attorney of Boston and Maine Railroad in 1914; representative in Massachusetts Legislature from Milton and Canton in 1904 and 1905; chairman Milton Water Board 1902-1912; vice-president Republican Club of Massachusetts, 1914 and 1915; elected trustee of Roxbury Latin School in 1914. My legal work for the railroad has made appearance before public bodies very common and this has given me a broad acquaintance with public officers and legislators in the northern New England states, which I have enjoyed immensely. This has, I think, made my law practice more interesting than that of most lawyers. Had a very severe illness in 1912 which terminated happily. Have travelled considerably in this country on business and for pleasure, making in 1914 a delightful trip to the Pacific Coast, where I was most hospitably entertained by classmates McNear and Pillsbury. A club which dines once each year at the house of each member also keeps up class connections in a pleasant way. Member: Union Club of Boston, Harvard Club of New York, Milton Club, Hoosic-Whisick Club of Canton.

Married	Florence Mabel Nichols, Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 30, 1901.
Children	Benjamin Sturgis, Jan. 24, 1904; Frances Motley, Aug. 22, 1906.
Business	Landscape Architect; Educator.
Address	(home) 50 Garden St., Cambridge, Mass. (business) 101 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

In 1898, after pursuing, at Harvard, special studies leading to the profession of landscape architecture, I was graduated "as of 1895." From October, 1898 till April, 1903, I was in the service of Olmsted Brothers, landscape architects, Brookline, but, by a special arrangement with them, I had carried on an incipient independent practice from December, 1900. In October, 1902, I was appointed assistant in landscape architecture in Harvard University, and on March 3, 1903, instructor, from September 1, 1903. In September, 1903, I opened my office at 2A Park Street, Boston, and on January 1, 1905, I announced my partnership with Percival Gallagher, under the firm name of Pray and Gallagher. In June, 1906, my firm became, and has since remained, Pray, Hubbard and White (Henry V. Hubbard, H., '97, and Henry P. White, H., '99). Since September 1, 1905, I have been assistant professor of landscape architecture here at Harvard. For somewhat more than seven years I have been chairman of the Department, now Graduate School, of Landscape Architecture. In the year 1909-10 I started a new course on the principles of City Planning, which so far as I know was the first course of this sort in any American university. Besides my work of instruction in Landscape Architecture and particularly City Planning, which includes in addition to this course in the Theory, Practice in Design, the administrative work for which I am responsible as Chairman of our Council uses a large share of my time. In 1911-12, while on sabbatical leave of absence from the university, I visited many of the most important cities in England, France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Austria, Hungary, Germany, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Belgium and Holland, for the purpose of a rapid survey and first hand study of their lay-outs, and the collection of information to be used in my city planning instruction. Much of this information is recorded in a very large collection of books, pamphlets, photographs, nearly 10,000 postcards, and several hundred plans, many of them secured by special arrangement from official quarters, making our Harvard City-Planning collections now probably the most valuable in this country at least. I have lectured on Landscape Architecture and City Planning at other institutions including Iowa State College and the University of Illinois, and before various local civic and other organizations. I have been appointed official advisor from Harvard University to the Cambridge City-Planning Board and was made Chairman of the Committee of Advisors to the President on the University Grounds in 1914. I am also a member of the American Civic Association Committee on the Preservation of our National Parks. Among my publications since the last report I may mention: "The Department of Landscape Architecture in Harvard University," which appeared in "Landscape Architecture," the official organ of the American Society of Landscape Architects, in January, 1911; "City Planning, a Comprehensive Analysis of the Subject Arranged for the Classification of Books, Plans, Photographs, Notes and Other Collected Material," 1913 (in collaboration with Miss Theodora Kimball, Librarian of our Harvard School); and "The Survey for a City Plan," an address delivered before the Fifth Annual Conference of Mayors and Other City Officials of the State of New York, held at Auburn, N. Y., on June 4, 1915, which appears in their published "Proceedings," and was reprinted in "Landscape Architecture" for October, 1914. In 1914 I served as President of the Boston Society of Landscape Architects, and have been Chairman of its Committee on City Planning since its organization in 1912. Much of my time has also been given to the service of the American Society of Landscape Architects, of which I have been for some years a member of its Executive Committee, and Vice-President, as well as a member of its Committee on Education and the Examining Board, and have served on other of its special committees including that for the Revision of its Constitution and By-Laws; and I am now President of this Society, Chairman of its Committee on Education and Examining Board. As chairman of its Committee on Education I have carried on negotiations with the American Academy in Rome, which have led to the establishment a few months ago by our Society of the Prize of Rome in Landscape Architecture in the Academy, which consists of a three years' Fellowship for study in Europe on the same conditions as the Academy's Fellowships in Architecture, Sculpture, and Painting; and I recently served as chairman of the jury on the first competition for this Fellowship. I am a member of many other professional and civic organizations, and a Faculty member of the Harvard Club of Boston.

Children	Josephine Nourse, Dec. 19, 1909.
Occupation	Architect.
Address	(home) 541 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, Mass. (business) 8 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.

Entered department of architecture, Massachusetts Institute of Technology in the fall of 1895. Served an apprenticeship in offices in Boston and New York, and in February, 1902, opened my own office for the practice of architecture at 8 Beacon Street, Boston, where I have been established ever since. Have been kept pretty busy in spite of War and the Democrats; and have had the pleasure of numbering a goodly proportion of the Ninety-Fivers among my clients. So far as I know, we're still friends. Since an eight weeks' trip abroad which I took at the time of my marriage in 1905, when I travelled through Italy and France, returning by way of England, I have done little journeying except incidental to my business trips. Am hoping, however, for an opportunity to visit San Francisco and the Panama Exposition before the close of the year. Member: American Institute of Architects, Boston Society of Architects, Boston Architectural Club, Harvard Club of Boston, Union Club of Boston.

Occupation	Lawyer.
Address	(home) Brush Hill Road, Milton, Mass. (business) 82 Devonshire St., Boston, Mass.

The first three years after leaving college I spent in the Harvard Law School. I never expect to strike a better place or a finer community. My first year in practice was in the office of Ropes, Gray and Loring. Then Austin Potter, '95, Jens I. Westengard, Law School, '98, and I formed the firm of Raymond, Potter and Westengard, and lived in amity for several years. Potter retired and Westengard went to Siam; but I still practised law, and am now in the firm of Raymond, Gordon and Whitman. I have several times attempted to escape from law by plunges into politics. So far, however, I have never wanted the job I could get or ever been able to get the job I wanted. Some people would call this hard luck; wouldn't you? I was offered the position of Deputy Commissioner of Corporations of the United States by President Taft, but declined. He also intimated a desire to bestow a robe of judicial ermine upon me, but the proposition interfered with a motor trip I was taking, so it got by. My last escapade was to run for Congress in the fall of 1914. I lost, but expect to be elected in 1916 if Perley Flint, '95, will carry Brockton for me. He says he can. I have had four wonderful trips abroad since graduation, and hope to have many more. I have written: A Statement of the Trust Problem, (Harvard Law Review, Vol. 16, p. 79, 1902). Genesis of the Corporation, (Harvard Law Review, Vol. 19, p. 350, 1906). The Anti-Trust Act, (Harvard Law Review, Vol. 23, p. 353, 1910). The Standard Oil and Tobacco Cases, (Harvard Law Review, Vol. 25, p. 31, 1911). Industrial Combinations, (Journal of Political Economy, Vol. 20, p. 309, 1912). Member: Tennis and Racquet Club, Union Club, Harvard Club, Hoosic Whisick Club.

Occupation	Merchant.
Address	(home) 10 Follen St., Cambridge, Mass. (business) 107 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

Immediately after graduation I went abroad for two months and returned in time to enter the Harvard Law School for a few months until the business year opened in January with William Read and Sons. I have been with this firm ever since. On May 1, 1914, the former members of the firm retired and I became the owner and only member of the firm. For some years after being married I lived in Brookline and then removed to Cambridge. Member: Union Club of Boston, Longwood Cricket Club, Oakley Country Club, Harvard Club of Boston.

and school committee, still being a member of that body. I have travelled little, my daily routine leading me back and forth between home and office, practically seven days a week. Perhaps the most recent event in which I have some little personal satisfaction has been taking an active part in the formation of the Harvard Club of Taunton. I trust this organization will help in sending more boys from this city to the old university. Member: Taunton Winthrop Club, Taunton Bristol Club, Segregansett Country Club, Taunton Yacht Club, Taunton Harvard Club, Metacomet Golf Club, (East Providence, R. I.), Taunton Automobile Club.

Address	(home) 81 Haddon Ave., Haddonfield, N. J. (business) 920 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Since leaving college, at which I decided to follow my original bent of natural science (especially birds and mammals), I have travelled pretty much over North America, including Mexico, collecting and observing. My collections numbering many thousands of skins, shells, etc., are in the Museum of Academy of Natural Sciences, Philadelphia. I have also been in England twice and Europe once pursuing historical and genealogical research. Have been eleven years in the "Old Book" business in Philadelphia, Pa., under the name of the Franklin Bookshop, of which I am sole proprietor. I deal in out-of-print and rare Americana natural history and medical books, pamphlets, manuscripts, views, engravings and portraits. Of these I have issued about 40 priced catalogues, numbering in all about 4,500 pages of closely-printed matter. Four years ago I spent six months in Western Ecuador, S. A., collecting about 6,000 specimens of birds, mammals, reptiles, insects and molluses. Contributed many articles on popular and systematic zoölogy (chiefly ornithological) to scientific publications. I have issued a reprint of Ords' Zoölogy of North America, (originally published in Guthrie's Geography of Philadelphia, 1815); Mammals of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, (Philadelphia, 1903). Member: Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia, Pa., Philadelphia Zoölogical Society, American Ornithologists' Union, American Audubon Society, Delaware Valley Ornithological Club, Delaware Valley Naturalists' Union, Haddonfield Natural Science Club, Haddonfield Historical Society.

CALE YOUNG RICE

Born	Dixon, Ky., Dec. 7, 1872.
Parents	Laban M. Rice, Martha Lacy.
School	Various Schools, also Private Tutor.
Years in College	1894-1896.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; A.M., 1896; A.B. (Cumberland University), 1893.
Married	Alice Caldwell Hegan, Louisville, Ky., Dec. 18, 1902.
Occupation	Poet and Dramatist.
Address	1444 St. James Court, Louisville, Ky.

After leaving college I accepted the chair of English Literature in Cumberland University, at Lebanon, Tennessee. But after a year gave it up to devote myself to the writing of poetry—a profession which I have continued to follow. My travels have been from year to year over Europe, Egypt, Palestine, India, Ceylon, Burmah, the Straits Settlements, China, Japan, and Hawaii. I scarcely know what to add to the foregoing which appeared in the last report. I have dwelt in so many lands, met so many different kinds of people, who were nevertheless “the same under the skin,” that selection seems impossible, when it comes to speaking of definite experiences. Perhaps the literary, diplomatic and religious life of the different nations has most occupied my thoughts. I believe that a broad and intense internationalism, to be achieved by literary intercommunications, world diplomacy for the sake of human welfare, and education for the breaking down of the barriers of religious intolerance, are the great desiderata of the future—and its great safeguard. That is the thought underlying my literary work, and the European war has but the more emphasized it for me. I have written: Books of poems, From Dusk to Dusk, 1898; With Omar, 1899; Song Surf, 1900; Nirvana Days, 1908; Many Gods, 1910; Far Quests, 1912; At the World’s Heart, 1914. Books of poetic dramas, Charles di Toccoa, 1903; David, 1904; Plays and Lyrics (including Yolanda of Cyprus) 1906; A Night in Avignon, 1907; The Immortal

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

GEORGE SHERMAN STOUGHTON RICHARDS

Born	Cummington, Mass., July 21, 1867.
Parents	Frederick Gilbert Richards, Emily Elizabeth Sherman.
School	Preparatory School, Alexandria, Va.
Years in College	1892-1893.
Degrees	M.A. (St. Stephens), 1895.
Married	Katherine C. Dudley, New York, N. Y., March 29, 1902 (died Aug. 18, 1913).
Occupation	Manager of Estates.
Address	(home) 4 Glenwood Ave., Northampton, Mass. (business) 136 East 34th St., New York, N. Y.

I was graduated from the Episcopal Divinity School, Cambridge, in 1893, and received from St. Stephens College my M.A. degree in June, 1895. After the death of Mrs. Richards in 1913, I took up my residence in New York City, and since then have managed estates and been interested as a real estate broker. At the same time I have been connected with the Church of the Holy Communion under the Rev: Henry Mottet, D.D., in doing lay work, and assisting in the work of the Sunday school. I have been interested in the charity work of the city, and through friends have been able to assist many who do not apply for charity. The work is most interesting. Years in College	1891-1893.
Occupation	Author.
Address	99 John St., care of Ledoux and Company, New York, N. Y.

I do not find that I have much to say for myself, or of myself, except that I have done literary work since leaving Harvard in 1893. I have written from time to time for the magazines, and I have published the following books of verse: The Torrent and the Night Before, (privately printed in 1896), The Children of the Night, (Badger, 1897; Scribner, 1905), Captain Craig, (Houghton, Mifflin Co., 1902; Macmillan, 1915), The Town Down the River, (Scribner, 1905). I have also published a play in three acts called Van Zorn, (Macmillan, 1914). I wrote this play—calling it by mistake a comedy—primarily to please myself; and I seem therein to have succeeded admirably. Several well-known “theatrical pople” have praised it highly; but none of them has said anything about putting it on the stage. If this begins to read to you (meaning the secretary and the editor) like an advertisement, I can only say that you should not have asked me for more than I wrote you in reply to your first request for information. I might add that certain superficial critics who have called me a pessimist have been entirely wrong in their diagnosis. In point of fact, one has only to read my books to wish that half the world might have half my optimism. Member: Institute of Arts and Letters.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

After graduation from the Andover Theological Seminary in 1900, went to Germany as seminary fellow, and spent four years studying church history at Berlin and at Marburg. From the latter university I received the degree of licentiate of theology in 1903. In 1904-1905 was instructor in history at the Andover Theological Seminary, where I was ordained as a Congregational minister on the 5th of June, 1905. Since the autumn of that year I have been assistant professor of church history in the Union Theological Seminary, New York City. In 1912 was given a seat also in the graduate Faculty of Political Science in Columbia University. For five years, 1908-1913, gave half my time as acting librarian of the seminary, and planned and executed the transfer of the collections, numbering over 100,000 volumes and nearly 60,000 pamphlets, to our new buildings in the Columbia University group. Since October, 1913, I have devoted all my time to lecturing and to study, covering the mediaeval and modern periods of the religious history of Europe, also American church history. Since 1912 I have been secretary of the American Society of Church History, and editor of its biennial volume of papers. Since 1907 I have spent summers at Paris and Oxford, Lake Memphremagog, the Catskills, Lake George, or Greensboro, Vermont; the last two summers I have studied at the University of Göttingen, where I received the degree of Ph.D. in 1914. Shortly before the outbreak of the great war, I visited Belgium to investigate a twelfth century Latin manuscript history of the abbey of Ninove, near Brussels. Fortunately my sojourn at the archives of Ghent ended six weeks before the invasion. Was in Göttingen the first five weeks of the war; saw the troops leave for the front, and witnessed the greatest scenes of patriotic devotion on the part of university men that it has ever been my privilege to observe. Arrived safely in New York via Holland on the 21st of September, having experienced nothing but courtesy. To express my pro-German sentiments have recently joined the German University League, and have spoken a few times on the war. Hear a great deal about Cambridge affairs through

Born	New York, N. Y., April 23, 1871.
Parents	A. F. de Chaignon la Rose, Katharine Kappus von Pichlstein.
School	Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895.
Occupation	Man of Letters.
Address	1737 Cambridge St., Cambridge, Mass.

The writer has spent the past twenty years busily and happily and in complete good health, with Cambridge as his headquarters, and Europe, Mexico, Asia Minor, etc., as his occasional holiday grounds. For seven years he taught at Harvard, resigning in 1902. Since then he has been busied with literary work, chiefly critical, with excursions into decorative designing. He has written one book, privately printed, and many magazine articles, sometimes anonymous and sometimes pseudonymous. A bibliography of this kind of work would be difficult and unprofitable.

Since 1895 I have held positions as instructor in Alleghany Institute, Roanoke, Virginia, and Manhattan College, New York. From 1898 to 1900 I was a student in the graduate department at Cornell University, pursuing studies in English literature, Greek, and history. Was graduated with the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, Cornell, 1900. Since then have taught in Weantinaug and Ingleside schools, New Milford, Connecticut, and for the last two years have been doing literary and journalistic work in New York City. Removed to Manitoba, 1906, since when I have been engaged in newspaper work, both as editor and business manager. If anyone is interested in learning further particulars of my very modest attainments he can communicate with me at my Winnipeg address.

Died	Boston, Mass., April 10, 1912.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

At the time of the last class report, Dr. Rust was in active practice in Boston, and was, in addition, Associate Professor of Ophthalmology in the Tufts Medical School. On account of ill-health and increasing deafness he was shortly obliged to give up his private work, but retained his professorship for another year. Early in April, 1912, he was taken with an acute infection of the throat, and, after a short illness he died of general septicæmia, April 10. His many friends will long remember his sunny disposition, and his courage throughout his physical disability. Many also have good reason to recall his cheerful courtesy and generosity in all ways.

Born	Uxbridge, Mass., March 24, 1870.
Parents	Israel Saben, Lydia Jane Albee.
School	High School, Uxbridge, Mass., and Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H.
Years in College	1891-1892.
Occupation	Editorial Writer and Author.
Address	27 Pleasant St., Whitinsville, Mass.

After my two years at Harvard (including one at the Law School), I went abroad in 1894, spending four years in European travel and study. I was engaged in the labor of literary and philosophical research at Oxford for a year, and later attended the lectures of the late Professor Kuno Fischer, at Heidelberg. Upon my return to America in 1898, I went West and lived a kind of Bohemian, or semi-Bohemian existence for a year in various places, from Chicago to Helena, Montana. In the last named city I delivered a course of financially profitable lectures, and then returned East in February, 1900. In the winter of 1900-1901, I gave thirteen lectures in Philadelphia. My next venture was with a theatrical company, which I partly financed, and later managed—quite unsuccessfully, I should add. In the autumn of 1902, and for the next two years, I lectured on various literary, ethical and philosophical subjects in Boston, Portland, Bangor and New Bedford. In 1904 I became an editorial writer on the Tacoma Daily News, and later on the Tacoma Ledger, and have since been on the editorial staffs of the Portland (Oregon) Telegram, the Denver Re-

After graduating from the Law School in 1898 and my admission to the bar of New York State in the following autumn, I began practising law in New York City and have been doing so ever since. There has been nothing of special interest to record. I have never taken an active part in politics, although I have at times aided and abetted friends who were willing to serve the public on their own terms. Needless to say, I have had no offices of honor or trust thrust upon me, except by and with clubs. I am at present happily free from all such responsibilities, and am leading a blameless and therefore uneventful life. Born	Latrobe, Pa., Nov. 22, 1871.
Parents	Mathias Saxman, Katherine Du Wayne Wilson.
School	Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pa.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Married	Rachel Williams, Alexandria, Va., Dec. 20, 1909.
Occupation	Mining Engineer.
Address	415 Depot St., Latrobe, Pa.

On leaving college I was engaged in mining in Colorado, Montana and British Columbia; then for three years followed railway construction in the Northwest. Again drifted into mining, which I have followed since, having charge of gold, silver, lead, zinc, copper and coal properties, also smelting works. During 1907-1908 I had charge of large copper mines and smelters located in the United States, Canada and Mexico, with offices in New York. The strain of keeping these properties in operation, during the panic, caused me to break down in health; have been kept busy trying to recover, and have lived in various sections of the country. Am now temporarily in Florida, just about recovered and expect to take up my work again this year. Member: American Institute of Mining Engineers, American Mining Congress, Country clubs and Golf clubs. On account of illness, resigned from a number of societies and clubs, among them: Harvard Club of New York, Harvard Club of Western Pennsylvania, University Club, Salt Lake City; American Society for Advancement of Science, National Geographic Society, Utah Society of Engineers.

After graduation I entered the Law School, but broke down in the beginning of our second year. Went to Colorado for a rest but got a very serious attack of pluro-pneumonia, complicated with delayed resolution and meningitis. Have never been really strong since. While recuperating I drifted to Mexico City, from which place I came north at the outbreak of the Spanish War. Enlisted at the Washington Navy Yard and was ordered to the U. S. S. Harvard, on which ship I served through the war as gunners-mate, 3d class. Won the "Specially Meritorious Service" medal as well as the battle medal after the battle of Santiago. In 1899 I went to Paris to study art and have since lived in or near Paris, wintering on the French or Italian Rivas, except the last three years

Degrees	A.B., 1895.
Married	Julia Ward Richards, Gardiner, Me., Dec. 27, 1905.
Children	Henry, Nov. 17, 1906; Elizabeth, Oct. 16, 1908; John Dyer, July 27, 1911; Robert Hallowell, July 20, 1914.
Occupation	Teacher.
Address	(home) Groton, Mass.

After leaving college I experimented with a number of occupations. These included two years in Ouray, Col., mining, and two years in Mississippi, buying cotton. In 1905 I came back east, and in 1909 started a small school for young boys in Groton. This is called the Red House School. Eight boys from ten to fourteen years of age are taken and prepared for such schools as Groton and St. Paul's. In 1914 I was elected a member of the Groton School Committee. It is only fair to the voters of Groton to say that there was no other candidate for whom they could vote. During the school year I work reasonably hard. In the summer vacation I cultivate my garden, cut the grass and wield the paint brush, and for amusement, play golf, ride motoreycle and go on picnics with my family. Sic transit mea vita.

After graduation I studied philosophy four years, taking the doctor's degree in 1899. The next year I taught philosophy in the University of Wisconsin; the next year after I spent as Austin Teaching Fellow in Harvard University. In the fall of 1901 I took a position in Columbia University, New York, as assistant in philosophy; continued two years in that position, and was appointed tutor in 1903. I remained two more years at Columbia, and was then appointed preceptor in philosophy at Princeton University. In 1909 I received a call to a chair of philosophy in Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., where I am at the present time. Have frequently spent summers in Europe, mostly on the English seacoast; and in 1912-1913 took a sabbatical year in Germany and England. Have served as vice-president of the American Philosophical Association (1914), and as secretary of the section of logic in the Congress of Sciences at the St. Louis Exposition in 1904. I have written about fifteen articles in the "Philosophical Review," the "Journal of Philosophy" and the "Psychological Review," between 1900 and the present date. In the fall of 1895 I entered the department of architecture of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, as a special student, remaining there during the two following academic years. In October, 1897, I was admitted to the office of Peabody and Stearns. During the next five years I worked for this firm in various capacities, mostly in the Boston office, but serving a part of the time as clerk of the work on a building in Cleveland, Ohio. In 1904 I opened an office in Boston. Until my marriage in 1903, I lived in Cambridge. The first two years after marriage we lived in Dedham, Mass. Then we removed to Cambridge, and later on to Brookline. Finally in 1913, I bought a farm of 108 acres in Millis, Mass., and after remodelling the house, moved in in September of the same year. Millis is a small town, twenty-two miles from Boston, so that I am able to go back and forth daily. terest is in teaching. I have published some articles on technical subjects, and belong to various scientific societies. I am a member of the University and Brae Burn Country Clubs. I visited Sumatra (west coast) Japan, 1901. During a leave of absence in 1909 I visited the Society and Cook islands, New Zealand, Australia, and several islands of the Malay Archipelago. I also visited Sarawak in 1911-1912. [Mr. Smith sailed about the first of November, 1914, for Borneo. The first direct word from him was a card from Port Said, dated November 25. A letter dated March 13, 1915, at Limbang, Sarawak, states that he found the natives on the Madalam River in a state of intense excitement, owing to murderous inroads of one of the tribes from the far interior. The letter concludes as follows: "I have just returned from a fine trip of 39 days and 39 nights in the wilderness about Mt. Mulu, where I obtained a large number of fine bird skins and butterflies—or rather my collectors did. With best wishes for the success of the '95 celebration, in time for which I may be back. I am, etc.'"]

Married	Katharine Price, Louisville, Ky., April 30, 1902.
Occupation	Railroad Manager.
Address	1300 Pennsylvania Ave., Washington, D. C.

Mr. Spencer writes that he has nothing to add to his last report which was as follows: "After leaving college I accepted an appointment as clerk in the superintendent's office of the Elgin, Joliet and Eastern Railway, at Joliet, Illinois, in September, 1895. I became chief clerk to superintendent, October, 1896, and was appointed assistant superintendent of the Alabama Great Southern Railroad at Birmingham, Alabama, December 1, 1897. I was appointed superintendent of the Southern Railway Company at Louisville, September 1, 1898; assistant general manager of the St. Louis-Louisville lines of the Southern Railway Company at St. Louis. January 1, 1901, and general manager of the same line, February 1, 1901. On April 1, 1905, I came to Washington as general manager of the Southern Railway Company, and have continued to reside there since. In November, 1906, I became vice-president of the Southern Railway Company, which position I now occupy. Since the last report I have become a director of the Mechanics Bank and Trust Company, of Knoxville, Tennessee, and a member of the Metropolitan, Chevy-Chase, and University clubs of Washington."

Julius Staab

Born	Santa Fé, N. M., Aug. 11, 1874.
Parents	Abraham Staab, Julius Schuster.
School	Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pa.
Years in College	1893-1895.

CLASS OF 1895—FIFTH REPORT

Degrees	A.B., 1895; A.B. (Swarthmore College), 1893.
Occupation	Lawyer.
Died	Aug. 27, 1913, Albuquerque, N. M.

Julius Staab is remembered by his classmates as a man of small stature, but of an unusually quick and active mind. In his person, he bore the evidence of his birth under semi-tropical skies together with a suggestion of Spanish blood in his veins. His ability to steer a racing shell while in College has been cited by rowing coaches as a good illustration of the theory, that a clear head and the power of quick decision are of more importance in the coxswain's seat, than the saving of a few pounds of weight. Upon graduating with the class from Harvard, Staab studied law at Columbia University, after which he began the practice of his profession at Chicago, Illinois, where he continued for two years. He then, to use his own phrase, "wandered Westward Ho," to New Mexico, the place of his birth, and settled in Albuquerque, where up to the time of his death, a dozen years later, his life was one of continuous accomplishment, marked by plain living and high thinking and by close application to the legal problems of his native state. During these years he held there the following positions: Assistant District Attorney for the Second Judicial District of New Mexico; member of the Commission to revise the laws of New Mexico; member of the Law Board of Bar Examiners. In 1911, at the first election after New Mexico became a state, Julius Staab was chosen Judge of the Probate Court of Bernalillo County. The latter position he held until within a few days of his death, when ill-health prompted his resignation. Following the decease of Judge Staab, memorial services were held in his honor by the Court of the Second Judicial District; and a committee appointed by the Bernalillo County Bar Association presented a eulogy on his life and character, together with a set of formal resolutions of sorrow and regret at his untimely death. In the resolutions, it was stated that as a citizen, lawyer and judge, Julius Staab merited and received the respect of the entire community in which he lived and worked and, that up to the time of his death, his future career had given every promise of becoming more and more useful and distinguished as the years went by.

JOSEPH LEWIS STACKPOLE

Born	Boston, Mass., Nov. 16, 1874.
Parents	Joseph Lewis Stackpole, Martha Watson Parsons.
School	Hopkinson's School, Boston, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; LL.B., 1898.
Married	Katharine Whiteside Brown, Highland Park, Ill., Oct. 16, 1899.
Children	Joseph Lewis, July 20, 1902; Elizabeth, July 22, 1904; Richard, Sept. 8, 1911.
Occupation	Lawyer.
Address	(home) 287 Marlboro St., Boston, Mass. (business) 84 State St., Boston, Mass.

After leaving college I entered the Harvard Law School, graduating from there with the degree of LL.B. in 1898. In the fall of that year I entered the office of Fish, Richardson and Storrow, with which firm I have remained, having since been made a partner. The firm is now Fish, Richardson, Herrick and Neave, 84 State Street, Boston, Mass. I specialized in patent law. I have not had many outside interests. In 1907 I went to Kiel, Germany, with a number of yachtsmen who raced Sonder boats against the Germans that summer. There I met a number of interesting Germans, including the Kaiser, Crown Prince and Prince Henry of Prussia, all of whom are now more or less in the public eye. I also visited Europe in the year 1908. My principal outside interest is in yachting. Member: Tennis and Racquet Club of Boston, Somerset Club, Eastern Yacht Club, Beverly Yacht Club, Harvard Club of Boston.

WILLIAM EVERETT STARK

Born	Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 12, 1873.
Parents	William Frank Stark, Sarah Lavinia Weeks.
School	Cambridge Latin School, Cambridge, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; A.M., 1901.
Married	Eleanor Parker Fiske, Cambridge, Mass., Aug. 3, 1899.
Occupation	Superintendent of Schools.
Address	(home) 328 Union St., Hackensack, N. J. (business) State Street School, Hackensack, N. J.

The year after graduation, I spent in the study of engineering in the Harvard Graduate School. At the same time I got my first taste of teaching as an assistant in the department of physics. For the next two years I was in engineering practice as an employee of the Metropolitan Water Board, Boston. To add to the meagre salary of a rodman, I taught in the Cambridge Evening High School. At the end of two years, I decided that teaching was the work for me, and became a teacher of physics in the Cambridge Manual Training School, where I remained for three years. During this time, I studied education in the Harvard Graduate School, and in 1901 got a master's degree. During the summers I gained experience in school administration as superintendent of vacation schools in Boston. In the summer of 1901, I went to Colorado Springs as principal of a private elementary school. In 1903 I went to New York City as principal of the high school department of the Ethical Culture School. This position I occupied for eight years. During this period I had a share in the work of the Schoolmasters Association of New York and vicinity and of the Headmasters' Association. I was president of the former in 1909-10. After a year of graduate study at Columbia University, I went in 1911 to my present position as superintendent of schools of Hackensack, N. J. Member: Schoolmasters' Association of New York and Vicinity, Harvard Alumni Association, Schoolmasters' Club of New York, Round Table of New Jersey School Superintendents, New Jersey State Teachers' Association, National Education Association, American Association for the Advancement of Science, National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education, American School Hygiene Association, Harvard Teachers' Association, National Geographic Society, Theta Delta Chi.

Occupation	Banker.
Address	(home) 15 West 75th St., New York, N. Y. (business) 20 Nassau St., New York, N. Y.

Since the last class report there is little I can say that will be of interest, excepting that in the last municipal campaign I served on the committee of 107, as a member of the executive committee. I also served actively in the campaign, contributing in a slight degree towards that interesting political success. My activities outside of business have been as trustee of The People's Institute; as a director of the Montefiore Home and Hospital for Chronic Invalids; and as chairman of a committee called the "Joint Committee on Tuberculosis," which is endeavoring to work out in an experimental way the question of after-care of tuberculous patients who have been discharged from sanatoria. Member: Harvard Club of New York, Century, Country Club, City Club.

CABOT STEVENS

Born	Sailors Snug Harbor, Staten Island, N. Y., Feb. 9, 1875.
Parents	Edward Winslow Stevens, Sarah Russell Cabot.
School	Cambridge High School, Cambridge, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	S.B., 1895.
Married	Minna Elizabeth Conklin, Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 26, 1907.
Occupation	Electrical and Hydraulic Engineer.
Address	Care of The Columbus Power Co., Columbus, Ga.

On reviewing my life since graduation I do not find any events of especial interest to the Class of '95. After a few weeks with the N. Y., N. H. and H. R. R. in connection with the electrification of their Nantasket Beach branch, I went with the General Electric Co., spending three and one-half years in the Schenectady factory and on outside construction. After this I was seven and one-half years with the Edison Electric Illuminating Co. of Brooklyn as electrical engineer in charge of electrical construction and operation. Then I was eight and one-half years with the Stone and Webster Engineering Corporation, on engineering and construction work in connection with miscellaneous steam and hydro-electric properties. Since January 1, 1915, I have been with the Columbus Power Co. In view of the present European war, Mrs. Stevens and I were fortunate in spending a short vacation abroad during the fall of 1913, seeing Paris, the Swiss and Italian lakes and the principal cities of Italy. Member: Harvard Club of New York, Harvard Club of Boston, American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

Occupation	Dry Goods Commission Merchant.
Address	(home) 1415 Prospect Ave., Plainfield, N. J. (business) 229 4th Ave., New York, N. Y.

After one year in college I left to go to work and have been in the wholesale dry goods business for the twenty-three years since then, three years in Boston, the rest of the time in New York. As a bachelor I lived in New York frequenting the Harvard Club and serving the state for five years in Squadron A. Since 1907 I have lived in New Jersey and, with my family and many good friends, enjoy life in the country. Member: Harvard Club of New York, Merchants' Club, Plainfield Country Club, New England Society, Order of Founders and Patriots, Squadron A Ex-members Association.

CLASS OF 1895—FIFTH REPORT

My first business experience after leaving Harvard was acquired in the small publishing house of Lamson, Wolfe, and Company, of Boston. After a time I left them for the Boston Bookbinding Company, then of Boston, but now of Cambridge,—a firm guided by our classmate, Norman H. White. About three years after leaving college I again changed, this time to The University Press in Cambridge, with which I am still connected, and of which I am one of the directors. I have dabbled in two or three side issues, the most interesting of which, perhaps, was the editorship of the Harvard Bulletin several years ago, with Jerome D. Greene, '96, for the space of twelve months. What literary efforts I have made have been in the direction of "hack" writing, occasional things for magazines or papers. The only one which has been dignified by appearing inside of stiff covers is an article entitled, "How Books are Made," which first appeared in the "Independent," and was afterwards reprinted in "Specimens of Exposition and Argument," compiled by Percival and Jelliffe (Macmillan, 1908). Member: Colonial Club, Cambridge; Harvard Musical Association.

RUFUS WHITTAKER STIMSON

Born	Palmer, Mass., Feb. 20, 1868.
Parents	Horace W. Stimson, Harriet A. Hunt.
School	Palmer High School, Palmer, Mass.
Years in College	1892-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; A.M., 1896; B.D. (Yale University), 1897.
Married	Helen Morris, Boston, Mass., Oct. 4, 1899.
Occupation	Educator.
Address	(home) Garrison Hall, Garrison St., Boston, Mass. (business) Ford Building, Ashburton Place, Boston, Mass.

After further study leading to the degrees, A.M., at Harvard, and B.D. at Yale, I began work at the Connecticut Agricultural College. There I taught English, ethics and public speaking, and, on invitation of the graduating classes, preached the baccalaureate sermons, four years; and, thereafter was president for seven years. Two of these years I was chairman of the college section. I then returned to Massachusetts and enlisted in the movement for vocational education. After organizing the Smith's School at Northampton, the first state-aided vocational school with an agricultural department, I came to Boston as representative of the Board of Education in charge of vocational agricultural education throughout the commonwealth. The plan developed here has been hailed as a distinctive contribution to educational methods. I have done some writing and lecturing, here, and in Canada, on vocational education, with particular reference to the betterment of country life. I have been a contributor to the work of the N. E. A. My best outside contributions, have perhaps, been made through the American Association for the Advancement of Agricultural Teaching, of which I was president in 1913 and 1914, and of which I am chairman of the Standing Committee on the Use of Land. I would call the attention of any members of the class who happen into the booth set apart for the Massachusetts educational exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition to a collection of four hundred lantern slides and fifteen large electric transparencies with appropriate legends, also to a number of charts, descriptive of our methods and results. I have written: Agricultural Education, (Mass. Board of Education, 1911), Bulletins 8, 9, 10, 22, 28, 32 and 36, on various phases of Vocational Agricultural Education, (Mass. Board of Education, 1911 to 1914), Bulletin 579, Massachusetts Home-Project Plan of Vocational Agricultural Education, (United States Bureau of Education, 1914). Member: Boston City Club, National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education, American Association for the Advancement of Agricultural Teaching, National Education Association, Massachusetts Fruit-Growers' Association, Massachusetts Dairy-men's Association, Patrons of Husbandry.

Born	Orrville, Ohio, Feb. 11, 1874.
Parents	Joseph H. Stoll, Belle A. Jeffrey.
School	Wooster College.
Years in College	1894-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; A.M., 1896; Ph.D. (Munich), 1904.
Married	Harriet C. Agerter, July 16, 1902.
Occupation	Lecturer.
Address	University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn.

Since graduation I have spent three years in Europe,—1899-1900,—in Italy and Switzerland; 1902-1904, in Germany, Italy, and France. In the years 1900-1902 I taught English in Adelphi College, Brooklyn. In 1905-1906 I was instructor in English at Harvard, and since then I have been assistant professor of English at Western Reserve University, Cleveland. I received the degree of A.M. at Harvard in 1896, and, after two years of study at Berlin and Munich, the degree of Ph.D. from the latter university in 1904. The only thing to mention is that I have been steadily pursuing the life of a teacher and student. For two years (1912-1914) I have been in England and France, mainly in London at the British Museum Library. I have written: John Webster (Harvard Coöperative Society, 1904). Titus Andronicus, Tudor Shakespeare (MacMillan). Seven or eight articles on Shakespeare in Modern Philology and Modern Language Publications since 1910. A monograph on Othello. Member: Authors' Club, London.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Occupation	Treasurer and Manager of The Sylvester Co., a manufacturing corporation.
Address	(home) 40 Harvard St., Somerville, Mass. (business) Danvers, Mass.

For four years after graduation I was an instructor in chemistry in Harvard College. and a student in the Harvard Graduate School. The following year I taught chemistry in Ohio University. Since June, 1900, I have been manager of The Sylvester Co., a corporation engaged in the manufacture of various iron products.

WHITMAN SYMMES

(formerly William Whitman Symmes)

Born	San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 29, 1873.
Parents	Frank Jameson Symmes, Anna Aurora Day.
School	Lowell High School, San Francisco, Cal.
Years in College	1892-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895.
Occupation	Mining Engineer.
Address	(home) Bohemian Club, Post and Taylor Sts., San Francisco, Cal. (business) Virginia City, Nev.

I was engaged in mining work on the Pacific Coast from 1895 to 1900. In 1901 and 1902 I was engineer and general manager for the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Co., operating quarries and constructing the breakwaters and harbor for Manila, P. I. In 1903 I was manager of the dynamite works at Pt. Isabell, near San Francisco, retiring when the plant was bought by the Dupont Powder Co. From 1903 to 1909 I acted as consulting engineer in mining and similar work, with offices in San Francisco. Since the latter date, I have been superintendent of the Mexican, and other mines in Virginia City, and superintendent of the United Comstock Pumping Association. In addition to those duties, I have lately delivered lectures on mining at the University of California, and am otherwise engaged in the general practice of my profession. I have written the following articles: The Symmes Agitator. (Mining and Scientific Press, March

EDWARD CARROLL TABER

Born	Keokuk, Ia., Feb. 22, 1873.
Parents	Benjamin Phillips Taber, Nellie Powell Carroll.
School	Keokuk High School, Keokuk, Ia.
Years in College	1891-1894.
Married	Hazel Huiskamp, Keokuk, Ia., Dec. 4, 1912.
Children	Edward Carroll, June 21, 1914.
Occupation	Lumber Manufacturer.
Address	(home) 804 Grand Ave., Keokuk, Ia. (business) 1220 Main St., Keokuk, Ia.

I left college in March, '94, account of ill health, having been ill with rheumatism for several weeks the previous year at about the same time. In the fall of '94 I engaged in the merchandise brokerage business at Keokuk, Ia., and continued in this for eighteen months. I then took a position (April 1, 1896) with the Taber Lumber Co., who were operating a white pine sawmill at Keokuk. Have been with this company ever since. Have made frequent business trips since 1902 to Minneapolis, Duluth, and other Minnesota points. We have now cut out all of our white pine timber at our sources of supply in Minnesota and have closed our mill at Keokuk. We are still engaged in the wholesale and retail lumber business and in the manufacture of silos. Member: Keokuk Club, Keokuk Country Club.

HENRY RUSSELL TALBOT

Born	Norwood, Mass., Sept. 3, 1873.
Parents	Israel Tisdale Talbot, Emily Fairbanks.
School	Nichols School, Boston, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; B.D. (Cambridge Theological School), 1898.
Married	Mary Montgomery, Portland, Ore., April 7, 1910.
Occupation	Clergyman.
Address	140 E. 12th St., Portland, Ore.

On January 1, 1909, I resigned as dean of the Cathedral of All Saints, Albany, New York, to which service I had given five very happy years, in order to go into the West and undertake the work of building up a broken-down parish. There is little of interest to add to the above. The work of the parish has prospered and grown apace. In addition to the parochial duties there has fallen to my lot a share in various civic and other activities. The chairmanship of the Portland Vice Commission, the Social Service Commission, the Recreation League and of Seadding House, and the vice-chairmanship of the Good Samaritan Hospital, have consumed a considerable portion of my time, efforts and interest. The modern parson's life and energies I find have a good many outlets. I could wish no better luck to any man than that he find a home and work in the West.

Born	Boston, Mass., Sept. 22, 1872.
Parents	Eben Richards Tarbell, Ellen Jackson.
School	Newton High School, Newton, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1894.
Married	Edith Stone Kendall, Newton Centre, Mass., Oct. 1, 1902.
Children	Donald Kendall, Nov. 8, 1903; Dorothy Jackson, Dec. 24, 1906; Sally Wilson, July 1, 1910.
Occupation	Educator; Registrar, Carnegie Institute of Technology.
Address	(home) Rosslyn Farms, Carnegie, Pa. (business) Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pa.

A late decision to go to college, and, consequently, an inadequate preparation for the entrance requirements, found me at Cambridge in the fall of '91 as a special student majoring in English, and sometimes, alas, merely soldiering. Planning to consume the entire English department in one year, I stayed on for three, without completing the job; either the faculty added new courses faster than I could schedule them, or I was led astray by the bright lights, not those across the Charles, but those that were then shining in certain other alluring courses, to wit, Norton, Shaler, James, Peabody, Palmer, and Taussig. I suspect it was the latter cause. Then I packed up for Oxford, to be told, on arrival, by a fine, sympathetic, old provost that I had had more English at Harvard than they offered at Oxford, and that I should have gone on to one of the German universities. So I went on, not to Germany, but to look around the tight little island a bit, later turning up for a stay at one of Oxford's settlement houses in the East End of London. Back in Boston, I had a stretch of twelve years in the magazine game, 1896 to 1908, maximum work, minimum salary, and no fame—albeit I was an editor-in-chief for six or seven solemn years. However, there were compensations: two trips as a correspondent to Florida, two more to the West Indies, and three to Europe, one of these being to cover, in 1899, the sailings of Tommy Atkins for the Boer War. Since 1908 I've been in Pittsburgh, gate-keeper of a college. Through my office, as registrar of Carnegie Tech., passes an annual army of something over three thousand students, and the administrative work in this connection is the sort of service that is its own reward. To get the carbon from the steel mills out of our lungs, we go, summers, to Cape Cod, to pump the salt air in, knocking about for a blessed month or two in a structure that is a cross between a fisherman's hut and a dog-kennel. Sounds like a house-boat, but it isn't. But this way happiness lies; and the latch-string is always out for any '95 man, or other congenial soul, whose Ford may run short of gasolene within hailing distance of Chatham. Rosslyn Farms Country Club; vice-president, Faculty Club, Carnegie Institute of Technology; secretary, School Board of Rosslyn Farms.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Since the last report I have been living in New Haven, teaching at the Yale Medical School, and practising medicine at the New Haven Hospital and in private. In 1911 I was secretary of the Section in the Practice of Medicine of the American Medical Association, and attended the meeting of that society at Los Angeles. Afterwards, in company with Dr. Hamill of Philadelphia, I made an extended tour of the Far West, ending at a sporting camp in Jackson's Hole, Wyoming. The next year I was chairman of the Section on the Practice of Medicine of the American Medical Association. I have also served three years as secretary of the American Society for the Advancement of Clinical Investigation, and one year as Secretary of the Connecticut State Medical Society. Last summer I went salmon fishing at Little River, Newfoundland, and like all those who have tried that fascinating sport, mean to go again. I have written one or two articles a year in medical journals. Member: Association of American Physicians, American Society for the Advancement of Clinical Investigation, American Pediatric Society, Graduates' Club of New Haven, New Haven Lawn Club.

Occupation	Surgeon.
Address	(home) The Knoll, Cornell Heights, Ithaca, N. Y. (business) 105 North Aurora St., Ithaca, N. Y.

After graduation I matriculated at the University of Berlin and was a student in the medical department during 1896

and 1897. The fall of 1897 I returned to this country to take a position as assistant to Dr. W. W. Keen, Professor of Surgery, Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, and I was demonstrator of surgery and assistant in the surgical clinic of Jefferson Hospital until 1900. The spring of 1899 I again registered at the University of Berlin, graduating cum laude in that year. I then went to Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, as assistant resident surgeon, remaining there until the spring of 1903. I then accepted a position as surgeon to Clifton Springs Sanitarium and was appointed lecturer on surgery in Cornell Medical College, Ithaca, N. Y. In 1908 I was made assistant professor of surgery, Cornell Medical College, which position I held until the instruction in this subject was transferred to the medical department in New York City, 1910. During the past twenty years I have gone to Europe seven times and have visited the more important surgical clinics in Great Britain, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, France and Italy. In 1901 I was secretary of the Surgical Section of the American Medical Association. In 1913, chairman of the Surgical Section of the New York State Medical Society. In 1899 I was made a member of the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Chirurgie. My practice has been limited strictly to surgery for fifteen years, and I have contributed thirty-four articles to various medical publications on surgical subjects. I have written: Articles on the Surgery of the Stomach in the (Cyclopedia of Medicine and Surgery by Gould and Pyle, Philadelphia, 1900); Articles on the Surgery of the Stomach and Intestines and Kidney and Ureter (Sajous Cyclopedia of Practical Medicine, 1900); also the article on the Kidney and Ureter, 1914; Article on the History of Surgery in America (Howard A. Kelly's Cyclopedia of American Medical Biography, 1912); Article on Brain Surgery in the United States, (written with Dr. W. W. Keen for Chipault's l'Etat Actuel de la Chirurgie Nerveuse, Paris, 1903). Address	(home) 3958 Washington Boulevard, Indianapolis, Ind. (business) 210 American Central Life Building, Indianapolis, Ind.

I have done nothing since leaving college worthy of special mention that would be of interest to the world at large or any of my classmates. I have gained a good business education by hard work and close application which was not a part of my college course. Honors have not been heaped upon me but I manage to pay my debts and occasionally take a vacation. Why go into details further? Children	Martha Elizabeth, Feb. 19, 1901; James Francis, Aug. 11, 1902; John Heermans, Feb. 17, 1904.
Occupation	Professor of Law, West Virginia University.
Address	15 DeMain Ave., Morgantown, W. Va.

After completing the undergraduate course, I remained at Harvard one year, receiving my A.M. in 1896. The following month, July, 1896, I was nominated and, in November, elected State Superintendent of Free Schools. After the expiration of my term I was nominated a regent of the West Virginia University and served as such from 1901 to 1909, being president of the regents from 1904. In 1902 I received the degrees LL.B. and Ph.D. from the West Virginia University and immediately began the practice of law at Buckhannon, West Virginia. In 1907 I was appointed law clerk to the State Tax Commissioner, continuing one year, when I was appointed professor of law in the West Virginia University. Member: A. F. and A. M., Phi Beta Kappa.

WILLIAM MONROE TROTTER

Born	Springfield Township, Ross County, Ohio, April 7, 1872.
Parents	James Monroe Trotter, Virginia Isaacs.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; A.M., 1896.
Married	Geraldine Louise Pindell, Dorchester, Mass., June 27, 1899.
Occupation	Journalist.
Address	49 Cornhill, Boston, Mass.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

I think the sketch of my life for the first ten years after graduation is covered by the sketch I submitted at the decennial. Since then I have continued in the real estate business with my specialty, the negotiation of real estate mortgages, and in the publication of my weekly newspaper, "The Guardian," the main object of which is a propaganda against discrimination based on color and denial of citizenship rights because of color. The paper is published in the same building and on the same floor where Garrison published the "Liberator" before the Rebellion, and where the first edition of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was published, whence comes inspiration to battle against the undoing of the results of their efforts. In August, 1905, I was one of the founders of the Niagara movement. I am still president of the New England Suffrage League. Since April, 1908, I have been corresponding secretary of the National Independent Political League, and am president of the Boston Literary and Historical Association.

HENRY DUBOIS TUDOR

Born	Paris, France, Oct. 30, 1874.
Parents	William Tudor, Elizabeth Whitwell.
School	St. Mark's School, Southborough, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895.
Married	Eleanor Lyman Gray, Boston, Mass., June 10, 1905.
Children	Anne Elizabeth, July 8, 1906; John, Aug. 19, 1907; Henry Owen, May 16, 1911.
Occupation	Lawyer.
Address	(home) 310 Marlborough St., Boston, Mass. (business) 35 Congress St., Boston, Mass.

After graduating I studied law and was admitted to the Massachusetts bar. Have been a practising lawyer ever since, and my efforts are devoted to corporation and reorganization work, and a great deal of trust and estate business. I haven't done anything else but earn a living since leaving college, and this so far has not brought me any honors, public or private. I have not, however, succeeded in avoiding the income-tax gatherer.

Alfred Elwyn Upham

Born	Melrose, Mass., Sept. 16, 1865.
Parents	Charles H. Upham, Mary Sprague.
School	Wesleyan Academy, Wilbraham, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895.
Married	Margaret Marshall Spier, Cumberland, Md., Oct. 19, 1899.
Children	Marion Spier, March 3, 1902; Mary Evelyn, Aug. 20, 1910.
Occupation	Teacher and Superintendent.
Died	At Loch Raven, Md., Feb. 16, 1914.

No more fitting tribute to the memory of Alfred Elwyn Upham could be given here, than the appended resolutions drawn by the Board of Managers of the Maryland School for Boys, of which he was superintendent, at the time of his death. "A man of liberal education he took up the profession of teaching immediately upon his graduation from Harvard College, and after a service in the public school system of Massachusetts was called to the position of superintendent of education at the New York State Reformatory, Elmira, N. Y. In 1908 he was chosen as superintendent of our own institution after a careful investigation by the Board of the many names submitted for consideration. The problem presented to Mr. Upham by us was a most difficult one, involving a complete change in the type and administration of the school. He met it with the quiet self-reliance so characteristic of the man and brought it to a prompt and successful solution. In his last report to this Board, Mr. Upham thus stated his conception of the purposes of our institution and the methods to be followed to accomplish them: 'To educate, instead of imprisoning, a group of boys whom the regular agencies have abandoned to their fate. Here in the open country with no walls and no suggestion of espionage or prison, we are trying to pick up the broken and twisted threads of the lives committed to our care with the hope and aim of restoring the pattern and enabling each boy to weave his strong and durable garment of character. It will not do to forget, however, that all the physical well-being and mental training go for naught if they are not attended by honest, practical and spiritual moral training.' 'Honest, practical and spiritual,' Mr. Upham was unconsciously summarizing his own character. He was scrupulously 'honest' in every relation of life. He never deceived a boy and he never made a promise which he did not fulfil. His attitude towards questions of school administration and discipline was always eminently 'practical.' He never believed in fads and never went in pursuit of mere experimental theories. And finally, in all and through all his teaching there was a genuine 'spiritual' significance. Mr. Upham was a man of deep religious convictions and completely free from cant or hypocrisy. To him religion was a rule of daily conduct, and it has not been given us in our experience to have known many men who could better personally exemplify those qualities which it is the duty of a reformatory institution to plant where wanting, and to cultivate where undeveloped, in the boys committed to its care."

WALTER LINDSAY VAN KLEECK

Born	New York, N. Y., Jan. 6, 1872.
Parents	(adopted) Livingston Billings Van Kleeck, Helen Elizabeth Millis.
School	Boston Latin School, Boston, Mass.
Years in College	1891-1895.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; LL.B., 1903.
Occupation	Lawyer.
Address	(home) Millis, Mass. (business) 511 Sears Building, Boston, Mass.

The greater part of the year 1895-6 was spent in recovering from a serious illness. 1896-7 I taught mathematics and Latin in a private school in Providence, R. I. From 1897 to 1900 I was principal of the Medfield, Mass., High School. In September, 1900, I entered the Harvard Law School, graduating in 1903. I was admitted to the bar in August, 1903 and began practice in Boston, associated with Frank D. Allen and George A. O. Ernst, and being especially occupied with the affairs of the Central National Bank of Boston, then in the hands of a receiver. In April, 1906, I entered the office of Hutchins and Wheeler, 511 Sears Building, Boston, and have continued there ever since, the latter part of the time as a member of the firm. Member: Massachusetts Bar Association, Harvard Musical Association.

(business) Care of Stone and Webster, 147 Milk St., Boston, Mass.

The first year after graduation I spent with the General Electric Co. on construction work of electrifying the Nantasket Beach Branch of the New York, New Haven, and Hartford Railroad. For the next five and a half years I was engineer for the electrical department of that road, in charge of engineering of electrification of several parts of the system. Since January 1, 1902, I have been in engineering work with Stone and Webster and Stone and Webster Eng. Corp. in engineering and investigation work connected with railway, lighting, and power propositions, and especially water power and long distance electrical transmissions. Fellow of American Institute of Electric Engineers; Member National Electric Light Association, Harvard Club of Boston, Boston Yacht Club, Cambridge Boat Club; secretary, Association of Harvard Engineers.

CARL SCHURZ VROOMAN

Born Macon, Mo., Oct. 25, 1872.
Parents Hiram Perkins Vrooman, Sarah Buffington.
School Washburn College, Topeka, Kan.
Years in College 1891-1894.
Married Julia Green Scott, St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 28, 1896.
Occupation Farmer; Federal Official.
Address (home) 701 East Taylor St., Bloomington, Ill.
(business) United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Compelled to leave Harvard in 1894 on account of nervous exhaustion, I spent eighteen months abroad recuperating and studying European political, social and economic conditions. I toured France, Italy, Switzerland, Belgium and parts of England, on a bicycle, on foot, by rail and by carriage, seeing the life of the people at first-hand, and avoiding as far as possible the big tourist centres. While on this trip I met Miss Julia Green Scott, whom I married December 28, 1896. During the campaign of 1896, I stumped Southern Illinois, Central Missouri and Southeast Kansas for Bryan. After my marriage I went to Parsons, Kansas, and remained there until 1900, devoting myself to journalism, politics and agriculture. In 1898 I was appointed regent of the Kansas State Agricultural College, and served in this capacity until 1900, when I left the state to take up my residence in Bloomington, Illinois, where I have resided ever since. During the next few years my wife and I made several trips abroad, some of them for short periods, and two of them for periods of eighteen months. Our book recently published, "The Lure and the Lore of Travel," contains a collection of magazine articles describing our methods of intensive travel and what seemed to us the most significant aspects of European life. While on these trips I made a first-hand study of railway conditions and problems in the various European countries, following this up by a careful study of American railways, and as a result of four years of original investigations along this line, in 1910 I brought out my book entitled "American Railway Problems." For the past fifteen years I have been devoting the major portion of my time to scientific farming in Illinois and Iowa. I have taken the stump in every presidential campaign except the Parker campaign for the National Democratic ticket, and in the winter of 1912-13 made the race for the United States Senate in Illinois, receiving 34 votes in the legislature which finally elected Senators Lewis and Sherman. In the fall of 1913 I again entered the race for the Senate, but after a nine months' campaign in behalf of progressive Democratic principles, withdrew in order to avoid splitting up the strength of the progressive element of the Democratic party. On August 1, 1914, I was appointed Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, which position I now hold. Member: Pi Eta (Harvard); Clisosophic Society (Princeton); president Harvard Union, 1894; St. Botolph, Twentieth Century (Boston); Authors' (London); Cosmos, Press, Harvard (Washington); Iroquois, City, University, Union League (Chicago); Commercial Club, Country Club, Bloomington (Bloomington, Ill.); Knights of Pythias.

Our Fourth Report shows that, in 1910, I made the following return: "I received LL.B. degree from Harvard in 1898, and practised law in Buffalo until 1901, when I took a sort of a post-graduate course by marrying a Radcliffe, '96 girl. Since that time the practice of law in Philadelphia, 1418 Land Title Building, has occupied my time so constantly that I am told my pool game has fallen off considerably. Am a member of Germantown Cricket Club." The English is not bad, and the facts are fairly accurate. Hence, it stands—as is. Since that time, I have had a lawyer's usual experience. I have turned out some work which I considered distinctly good, but found no one to agree with me. On the other hand, I have hurried out reams of stuff, of which I was ashamed, only to find the product well regarded. The only really important feature of the past five years is that I and mine are well. Member: Germantown Cricket Club.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Degrees	M.D., 1898.
Occupation	Consulting Physician.
Address	(home) 1448 Jackson Ave., New Orleans, La. (business) 108 Baronne St., New Orleans, La.

In 1898, I was still an interne at the Massachusetts General Hospital at the time of graduation. In 1899, I finished my interneship and taught histology at the Harvard Medical School until February, 1900, when I went to Italy with William Ropes May. After travelling for a time, I began studying pathology and internal medicine in Vienna. In 1901, I became a member of the International Cancer Commission and went to Rome, Naples, Sardinia, Paris, London and Copenhagen, in the interest of the commission. I returned to Boston in March, 1902, and worked at the Harvard Medical School, in the laboratory of pathology and bacteriology, and at the Massachusetts General Hospital, outpatient department. In 1904, I returned to New Orleans, my father's age and health calling me home. I have lived here ever since. At once I became an assistant in medicine at The Medical School of Tulane University of Louisiana, also visiting physician to the Charity Hospital and The Touro Infirmary. After two years, I became assistant professor of medicine at Tulane, and chief of the medical department of Touro. For the past two years I have been professor of tropical medicine in both under and post-graduate departments of Tulane, and assistant professor of medicine in Tulane. I have often spent my vacations climbing in Switzerland, Italy, The Tyrol, and the Dauphine. In 1909, on Monte Rosa (Zermatt) I was frozen after twenty-seven hours of continuous climbing in extreme cold. As a consequence, I was laid up for thirteen weeks in Berne, Switzerland. I served the United States government in 1905 as assistant surgeon in suppression of an epidemic of yellow fever in New Orleans. The work was very successful. I have written articles on the following subjects: Yellow Fever (1898), Four Pathogenic Tournalae (1903), Handt's Disease (1905), The Laboratory in Private Practice (1905), Relation of Physician to Laboratory (1906), The

Occupation	Teacher.
Address	(home) 905 Lemon St., Riverside, Cal. (business) Polytechnic High School, Riverside, Cal.

After graduation from Harvard, I took the three-year course at Union Theological Seminary, New York, and was enrolled at the same time as a graduate student in Columbia University. Graduated from Union in 1898, having received the Master's degree from Columbia in 1897. Was ordained to the Baptist ministry at my home church in Chester, N. H., in 1898. Supplied the pulpit of the Springvale (Maine), Baptist church during the winter of 1898-99. Travelled in Europe, May to August, 1899. Chosen pastor of the Greenville (N. H.) Baptist church, November, 1899, and served in that capacity until July 1, 1903. Married Miss Jessie May Hollister in New York City February 20, 1900. Resigned the pastorate of the Greenville and New Ipswich churches July 1, 1903, to continue studies at Columbia. Was part-time teacher of modern languages in the Brooklyn (N. Y.) Latin School, April to June, 1904; and the following school year was master of modern languages in that school. Taught English to foreigners in the New York evening schools, 1904-5. Elected principal of the Mercer (Pa.) Academy and School of Music, August, 1905, and filled that position until May, 1907, when I resigned to study Romance languages in France and Germany. Spent one semester at Strassburg, two at Leipzig and one at Grenoble; also took vacation courses at the Alliance Française, Paris, and received the diplôme supérieur. Travelled in Italy, Switzerland and England, as well as in France and Germany. In spite of all the delights of foreign study and travel, was glad—mighty glad—after two and one-half years, to return to the land of liberty and American table delicacies! In two weeks after reaching New York was chosen an instructor in German at Dartmouth College (1909). Though a "native son," I had never been in Hanover. The work there was very congenial. After one year of college teaching I removed,

CLASS OF 1895—FIFTH REPORT

with my wife, to San Rafael, Cal., and accepted a position in the Mt. Tamalpais Military Academy. Spent the summer of 1911 at Ocean Park, Cal., and while there was offered a position in the Riverside, Cal. Boys' High School as teacher of modern languages. During the first year (1911-12) taught French, German and Spanish; since that time have taught Spanish only, having nearly 100 pupils in five classes. Have also conducted classes at the local Y. M. C. A. for the study of Spanish. Am a member of First Baptist Church of Riverside, and am at present (February, 1915) the Superintendent of the Sunday school. Find Riverside a most delightful place to live and can sincerely recommend it as a place to escape the rigors of the famous eastern blizzards and enjoy in their stead almost continuous sunshine and flowers. California always has a right to boast, but especially at this time, when the horrors of war in Europe and in Mexico have made foreign travel well nigh out of the question. If one-tenth of the seed of the Los Angeles boosters bears fruit, that delightful city will have no difficulty in registering a million inhabitants in 1920. I regret that my residence so far away prevents me from attending class reunions; but I would be delighted to get in touch with members of ninety-five who have any interest in the Pacific Coast. I have translated and produced on the stage (for High Schools): "La Poudre aux Yeux," (Labiche and Martin, Mercer, Pa., and D. C. Heath, Boston, 1906), "Zaragüeta," (Carrion y Aza, at Riverside, Cal., June, 1914). Member: Harvard Club of New Hampshire. First Baptist Church of Riverside, Cal.

Born Norwalk, Ohio, Sept. 1, 1869.
Parents Theodore Williams, Mary Goodnow.
School Riverview Academy, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.
Years in College 1890-1894.
Married Carrie D. Fox, Elmira, N. Y., June 30, 1896.
Children Frederick Fox, Oct. 18, 1897; Theodore, May 23, 1902; (died March 1, 1913); Mary Goodnow, Jan. 16, 1906.
Occupation Journalist and Railroad Passenger Agent.
Address 145 West Main St., Norwalk, Ohio.

For eleven years after leaving college, I was editor and publisher of the Norwalk Chronicle. In 1906 I sold out, since which time I have worked at journalism only at times, not having been continuously engaged, although never having considered myself wholly divorced from the work. I have served on the staffs of three governors of Ohio: Herrick, Pattison and Harris; but have never held public office. After a service of twelve years as a captain in the Ohio National Guard, I was placed on the retired list in 1912. I am a life member of the Whittlesey Academy of Arts and Sciences, one of the oldest institutions in the Western Reserve, a vestryman of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, member of the Masonic bodies in Norwalk. For the past two years I have been connected with the passenger department of the Cleveland and Southwestern Railway Co. Member: Masonic bodies, Norwalk, Ohio; Harvard Club, Cleveland, Ohio; Varsity Club, Cambridge, Mass.

Mr. Wollaeger writes that he has nothing to add to his last report which was as follows: After leaving Harvard in 1895 entered the Law School of the University of Wisconsin, and graduated with the degree of LL.B. in 1897. During my senior year was president of the Columbian Law Society; also joined Sigma Chi and Phi Delta Phi Fraternities. In July, 1897, engaged in practice of law as a member of the firm of Sheridan and Wollaeger. In August, 1899, was appointed by acting Governor Stone, regent of normal schools of state of Wisconsin, to succeed my father, who died at that time. In January, 1901, was elected a director and assistant secretary of the Concordia Fire Insurance Company of Milwaukee, one of the largest fire insurance companies of the Northwest. April 19, 1901, was appointed a court commissioner in and for Milwaukee County by the judges of the circuit court of that county. In January, 1906, was elected vice-president of said insurance company. At that time retired from the practice of law, and devoted all time to interests of said company.

Address	(home) 808 Main St., Geneva, N. Y. (business) Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y.

After receiving the degree of A.M. from Harvard in 1896, I taught Greek and Latin for two years in Pembroke Academy, Pembroke, N. H. I returned to Harvard in 1898 and, after three years of study in the Graduate School, broken by a year (1899-1900) as student in the American School of Classical Studies in Rome and of travel in Greece, Italy, Germany, and England, in 1902 received the degree of Ph.D. from Harvard in the department of classics. I was instructor in Greek at Princeton the following year, and after a year at home and another as classics master in the Morristown School at Morristown, N. J., I came to Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y., as instructor in Greek and Latin in February, 1906. On the resignation of Professor Francis Philip Nash (Harvard, '56), in June, 1907, I was appointed Hobart Professor of the Latin Language and Literature, and in that capacity I am now teaching, both at Hobart and in the William Smith College, a coördinate institution for women, which was opened in September, 1908. My mother died in 1905 and at my father's death in 1909, my sister came to Geneva and we have made a home for ourselves here. In the summer of 1911 we made Paris, Berlin, and London centres for some delightful excursions, one of which by good luck included Belgium. The five years since the last report have been busy ones in many ways but have left me with but small substantial additions to make to my previous record. I was elected to the Hobart Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa in June, 1908. I am a member of the American Philological Association and of the Classical Association of the Atlantic States, and also of the University Club of Geneva, of which I am the secretary.

Financial difficulties forced me to leave college at the end of my Sophomore year. In the fall of 1894 I entered the Harvard Medical School, graduating in June, 1898. Studied in foreign clinics for three months following. Served as house officer on the First Medical Service, Boston City Hospital, from January, 1899, to February, 1901. In April, 1901, took house officer's appointment at the Children's Hospital, Huntington Avenue, Boston. Started general practice with office on Boylston Street. Have been in general practice of medicine in Boston since. Member: Boston City Hospital Alumni, Children's Hospital Alumni, Massachusetts Medical Society, Economic Club.

Married	Grace Evelyn Trowbridge, Arlington, Mass., July 21, 1904.
Occupation	Teacher.
Address	(home) St. Clair Street, Geneva, N. Y. (business) Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y.

1895-96 I spent in the Harvard Graduate School, taking my master's degree in classics. 1896-98 I taught in private schools in Buffalo, N. Y. April 29 to November 19, 1898, I served through the war with Spain as a private in the 65th Regiment of New York Volunteer Infantry in camp first on Hempstead Plains, Long Island, and later in Fairfax County, Va. From 1898 to 1904 I was private secretary to the Right Rev. William Lawrence, Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Massachusetts, in Boston, Mass. During this period I continued my studies at Harvard. After teaching two years at the Wesleyan Academy, Wilbraham, Mass., (1904-06), I spent a summer in Europe and became instructor in the Boston Latin School, but soon left this position to become instructor in Greek and Latin in Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y. (Dec., 1906). On the establishment of the co-ordinate William Smith College for Women I took the same position there also (1908). In 1908 I spent another summer abroad, and in 1909 I was appointed assistant professor of Greek and Latin in Hobart College and William Smith College, and librarian of Hobart College. In 1911 I succeeded J. H. McDaniels (Harvard '61) as Professor of the Greek Language and Literature in the two colleges. In 1912 I held the office of vice-president of the New York State Classical Teachers' Association, and in 1913 was elected vice-president of the Classical Association of the Atlantic States and appointed associate editor of "The Classical Weekly." I have written: On Teaching Virgil, (School Review, Jan., 1912). The Tragedy of Dido, (Classical Journal, Jan. and Feb., 1913), and various articles and reviews in "The School Review," "The Classical Weekly," "The Nation," and elsewhere. From the Utica Globe (1910):—"Frederic Yorston, B.A., new president of the Montreal Standard Publishing Company, Ltd. Ottawa, July 21.—Frederic Yorston, B.A. (Dalhousie and Harvard), who has just been elected president of the Montreal Standard Publishing Company, Ltd., is a Nova Scotian, having been born at Pictou, in the county of Pictou, which was settled considerably over a century ago by the hardy Highland stock which came out from Scotland to the new world in the famous old sailing ships the Hope and the Hector. After matriculating in Dalhousie College, Mr. Yorston in his sophomore year took the new Shakespeare Society prize in a contest among 60 of the best students of the University. He took his arts degree, graduating with honors in English literature and history, his thesis being an edition with copious notes of Shelley's poem "Alastor," which is still referred to in the University calendar as a perfect piece of work of its kind. Mr. Yorston was also elected valedictorian for his year. Proceeding to Harvard he took his post-graduate degree under Von

Twenty years after makes one think of tales of Dumas and his guardsmen, but space and precedent probably forbid tales of adventures in these reports, no matter how romantic. For the sake of those classmates who have some interest in me, I suppose this is the time when I must depart a little from the stiff answers usually given to the stereotyped questions. To tell a little of my aims and activities, I may say that on first leaving college my greatest ambition was to have a part in beating Yale at New London. I was encouraged in this by some of the leading Harvard graduates who had been successful in rowing, including General William A. Bancroft, James J. Storrow, Edward C. Storrow, and George S. Mumford. Through a system of crews organized at the Weld Boat Club, of which I was the head for several years, the men were coached and trained who constituted almost the entire makeup of the three crews which defeated Yale in 1899, the first Varsity victory in nine years. Shortly after that I hired as coach to Weld Boat Club James Wray, who has since been very successful with numerous Varsity crews. My next work was in connection with the building of the new Weld Boat House, which I still help to look after as one of the Weld trustees. Growing out of my interest in rowing, I acquired the ambition to dam Charles River. This took much time during ten years of my life, five of those being years of unrequited toil and five when I got some pay. I was assistant instructor in American history in Harvard College for one year. Also taught a class in the same subject in Radcliffe. Next to rowing, I was most interested in debating. I coached a Harvard debating team which defeated Yale, and I acted as judge in two intercollegiate debates. In recent years I have been debating in the courts, always on the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved, that my client needs the money." I began practising law in Boston, in the office of Fish, Richardson and Storrow, as soon as mustered out of the United States Volunteer Cavalry at the close of the Spanish war. Began practice for myself in 1900. From August, 1904, to July, 1910, was secretary of the Charles River Basin Commission, which had charge of the construction of the Charles River dam and the Boston embankment in the Back Bay, the reconstruction of the Cambridge wharves and canals, and other works affecting navigation and sanitation in relation to Charles River. The Commission's work transformed the salty Charles into a fresh water basin and water park, having done away with the mud flats and made possible the reclamation of the salt marshes at a greatly reduced expense. My work as secretary, although partly administrative, was mostly legal. The dam and basin were completed and turned over to the Metropolitan Park Commission for maintenance in July, 1910. Since then I have devoted myself exclusively to my law practice, dealing chiefly with corporations, trusts, commercial law, and equity matters. I have appeared as counsel before the legislature in connection with many matters, chiefly of a public character, such as: the Act to reorganize the Boston School Committee, the Act to provide Pensions for Public School Teachers in Boston, and the Act to provide for a Juvenile Court. I served as attorney for the Boston Fruit and Produce Exchange, and am serving as trustee of several estates and director of corporations. Am at present located at 19 Congress Street, associated with Hollis R. Bailey, '77, Charles E. Shattuck, '87, and Elliott B. Church, '95. The principal events of my life since the last report have been connected with some rather strenuous litigation, principally equity cases. For exercise, I ride horseback in winter and in summer row a shell on the Charles River or on one of the New Hampshire lakes, also swim and play tennis whenever the opportunity offers..

CLASS OF 1895—FIFTH REPORT

Have taken an active interest in politics and hold offices in several political organizations, but have never sought election to any public office. In 1905 I organized a Citizens' Union to elect a reform administration of public schools in the City of Boston. Managed part of three successful reform campaigns for candidates for Boston School Committee. Helped to make enough trouble for some local politicians in city elections so that for several years they dropped school politics "like a hot potato." I have done a little public speaking outside of professional work, such as lectures, after dinner speeches, and occasional addresses. Military service as follows: Private, G Company, 12th Regiment Infantry, National Guard of Pennsylvania; trooper, Governor's Troop, Pennsylvania Cavalry, U. S. Volunteers. Saw active service in Porto Rico. Approved by Colonel Roosevelt for transfer to 1st U. S. Volunteer Cavalry. Served as captain and aide-de-camp on Second Brigade Staff, Massachusetts Volunteer Militia. Later was judge advocate and commissary on the same staff, with rank of major, until resignation in 1906. Served as president of the Veteran Association of the Governor's Troop. I have been three times abroad, visiting England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Germany and Holland, and have travelled over the greater part of the United States, from Maine to California. Member: Harvard Club of New York, Harvard Club of Boston, Boston Athletic Association, The Country Club, Brookline, Exchange Club, Ross Club, Williamsport, Pa., Boston City Club, of which I was the first secretary.

[He continued in his position as Superintendent of Schools of Philadelphia until last summer when he was nominated by the Republican party as their candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania. In the November elections he was elected by a large majority. As governor, Dr. Brumbaugh is particularly interested in the passage of a Local Option Bill, the Workmen's Compensation Bill, and the Child Labor Bill. In the legislature which is now in session the last two bills were passed while the first was defeated. The Child Labor Bill is particularly worthy of note because of its educational provisions and under the governor's influence an effort is being made to secure an appropriation of $1,000,000 for continuation schools in the Commonwealth. Different departments of public service have been reorganized under the governor's direction, the most important of which is the Highway Department.]

Conant is in the Philippines occupying a government position to which he was appointed two years ago. He is Professor of Law, in charge, with one associate, of the College of Law of the University of the Philippines. Owing to the time required for mail to reach him, his blank has not yet been received, but the following is taken from letters which arrived from him the day before this report goes to press. "After graduation in '95, I spent three years in the Law School, receiving my LL.B. in 1898; I was admitted to the Massachusetts Bar in September, 1898; practiced law in Boston until January, 1903; in Chicago January-July, 1903; in May, 1903, I was offered the professorship of law and the deanship to organize the Law School of Washburn College in Topeka, Kansas. I accepted and began work that fall. I was at Topeka until 1907, when an offer came from the University of Nebraska at Lincoln, which I accepted. I was there six years until the spring of 1913. In the summer of 1912, I taught at the University of Michigan, and it was while there that the proposition came from the Bureau of Insular affairs at Washington to come to this side of the world to teach, or to try to teach, the Filipinos better laws. I did my next year's work at Nebraska, and sailed from San Francisco in the following spring on the army transport, "Sherman." I have just completed two years' service here, and after April in the Benguet and Bontoc mountains, May in China, and June in the Southern Islands, I expect to begin my third year the first of July. The hot season here comprises April, May and June, hence our University year is set back three months. Commencement comes the last of March. This is about all I can say here. It lets you know before Commencement time where I am. I am mighty sorry not to be back there for the Class Reunion. To send "my best wishes to all that are fortunate enough to be there" doesn't half express my real feelings." A second letter from Conant states that he is at present in Shanghai, China, where he was invited to go as one of the judges in the International Athletic Meeting, similar in character to the Olympic games, which is to take place between representatives from China, Japan, the Philippines, Siam, and seven other countries. Mr. Conant represents the Philippines. He sailed for China on the 5th of May expecting to be there four weeks. Upon his return to Manila he hopes to make an extended tour of the Philippine Islands in connection with his work, and during the summer to deliver a course of twelve lectures on international law before teachers who will come to Manila from all over the Islands. Though Conant likes his present work, and is much

[Dr. Draper prepared and mailed his class blank at the time it was received, but it was lost in the mails. In response to a personal letter he has kindly forwarded the following which arrived on the day we go to press.]

After graduation in medicine, I found myself ignorant of the fundamentals without which I could not understand how one could properly practise—and this, after two years' experience in the City Hospital, New York. At my own expense, therefore I fitted up a laboratory for the study of the surgical forms of disease, chiefly abdominal which were then, as now, but little understood. This was located in the medical department of Columbia University. The teaching and the experimental results proving satisfactory, Columbia purchased the outfit after two years. A volume of transactions was published. Meantime I supported myself doing surgical work on human beings, and in 1909 went to Rochester, Minn., to work on surgical problems under Dr. W. J. Mayo and to develop a surgical research laboratory in connection with the Mayo clinic. Organized Laboratory for Surgical Research, Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minnesota, 1909-1911. While living at Rochester, changed my name from Maury to Draper. My wife says this affords all the excitement and confusion of a second marriage without any family funeral. In Rochester I spent two and a half years in academic study of the stirring problems of abdominal disease, most of which require for their solution animal experimentation. Am now working rather more on human beings than on dogs. Three years ago I returned to New York to develop a similar laboratory at the New York University. A volume of transactions is in press. It is extremely difficult to introduce into the medical teaching curriculum any courses which are an added expense, for the schools are all poor. It is fortunate therefore that I have secured thirty-one thousand dollars endowment for the University Laboratory. I am hoping to make it one hundred thousand before another five years. I am thinking seriously of sending my boys to Dartmouth for the out-door-life and undergraduate work, and to the Harvard schools for post-graduate. Success today depends more upon a strong body than upon mental training—at least from the surgical viewpoint this is so—I hope this is not too iconoclastic! at least it shows a firm belief in heredity. I still have the Chocorua farm where hay and white pine are sui generis and therefore profitable. Any classmate touring the White Mountains will be welcome and his dog, if with him, guaranteed safe from vivisection during the stay. I have written: Transactions of Surgical Research, Laboratory Columbia University, 1907; Articles in Arch. Mayo Clinic, 1911-1912 (Saunders); Transactions Surgical Research Laboratory New York University(in press.) Member: Experimental Biology and Medicine, Academy Medicine, New York, American Medical Association, American Gastro-Enterological, New York Gastro-Enterology, Harvard Club.

Murray Anthony Potter

Born	Clifton Springs, Ill., March 15, 1871.
Parents	Edward Edmunds Potter, Susan Anthony.
School	Boys' High School, San Francisco, Cal., and University of California, Berkeley, Cal.
Years in College	1891-1894.
Degrees	A.B., 1895; A.M., 1897; Ph.D., 1899.
Married	Bessie Lincoln, Boston, Mass., April 17, 1900.
Occupation	College Professor.
Died	May 17, 1915, Lancaster, Mass.

Murray Anthony Potter died of pernicious anaemia at his country home at Lancaster, Mass., Monday, May 17, 1915, on the very eve of the class Vicennial. He was born at Clifton, Illinois, on the 15th of March, 1871, the son of Susan Anthony and Edward Edmunds Potter. His early life, however, was spent mainly in California and there he prepared for college, coming to Cambridge in 1892 as a sophomore, after one year passed at the California State University at Berkeley. He took his A.B. with '95, receiving honorable mention for his excellent work in Sanscrit with Professor Lanman. For a brief period after graduation he thought of going into business, but the habit of scholarship was already fixed upon him and he presently returned to the College to work with Professor Marsh in Comparative Literature for his A.M. in '97, and with Professor Grandgent in Romance Philology for his Doctor's degree in '99—having as comrade in those small classes with which Professor Grandgent began the Romance work of the new Graduate School our own distinguished '95 scholar Professor George Hamilton. Potter's thesis was on "The Epic Theme of a Combat between Father and Son: A Study of its Genesis and Use in Literary and Popular Tradition." It was published shortly afterwards by Alfred Nutt, London. In 1900 he was called to Dartmouth College as instructor in French and Spanish and in the course of the ensuing year he married Bessie Lincoln, daughter of Solomon Lincoln '57, LL.B. '64, sometime Overseer and a resident of Boston. With the Boston and Harvard tradition so diffused about him, it is not surprising to find him determined upon a life-work which should be done here. And on the year following, in fact, he was called back to Harvard as instructor in Romance Languages, where in the due course of time his efficient work was rewarded by advancement to an assistant-professorship—the grade he held at his death. Although in general charge of large, popular courses such as French 2 and Spanish 1, Potter, these latter years, had turned more and more towards Italian in which field he was already establishing a reputation as an authority upon the Renaissance. He had in preparation special courses on Petrarch and Boccaccio, together with a general review of Italian Literature from the beginnings to our days which would have been offered next year for the first time, subsequently to alternate—at Radcliffe as well as at the College—with advanced work on the Epic, the Pastoral and the general literature of the Renaissance. He had also in contemplation a critical study of Petrarch, although for the time being he had no intention of committing it definitely to print, preferring to wait still longer until time should mellow certain judgments and fix others more firmly. For he was a teacher and lecturer, rather than a writer of articles for technical Reviews and had printed but little as yet save "Sohrab and Rustem," done for Mr. Nutt, various minor papers and pamphlets prepared for modern language meetings and the like, together with a Spanish text-book "Cuentos Alegres" primarily for the use of his classes at Harvard, the proceeds from which were intended for the family of the unhappy Taboada from whose works the selections were drawn. In memory of his mother he had a few years ago established the Susan Anthony Potter prizes for meritorious essays bearing upon the history of the Renaissance in Spain. For one so conversant with the Neo-Latin languages, travel is the almost indispensable concomitant, and Potter was happy in being able to gratify his every reasonable desire. He was thus, perhaps, the most considerable traveller on the Faculty, spending summer after summer in Europe. From this, plus the early student years spent in France and Germany there had resulted a wide acquaintance with men of letters in many countries and a cosmopolitan view-point, a locally sympathetic attitude towards men and ideas, so indispensable in good teachers of literature. Although suffering long and constantly from the ailment which was to carry him off, Potter was ever cheerful, forgetful of himself, attentive to the wants of others. In fact what must have most impressed strangers in this versatile, broad-minded scholar was his charming manner, his great gentlemanliness—and that first impression, as we who had been associated with him these many years best knew, was never to be altered nor disappointed by time. His kind courtesy and solicitous attentions for all with whom he came in contact had won for him a broad and general friendship: and in this case the manner truly spoke the man, mirroring the inner nature. Taken in the very middle of the journey of this life he had already achieved those honors which so seldom accompany even old age. He was happy in his accomplishment: he has left for us a happy memory.

SAMUEL TABER WILLETS

Born Roslyn, L. I., N. Y., Oct. 15, 1872.
Parents William Willets, Sarah Phebe Taber.
School Phillips Acedemy, Andover, Mass.
Years in College 1891-1892.
Address Roslyn, L. I., N. Y.

Although Willets has temporarily lost the use of his limbs, and is unable to write, he has taken the trouble to send word to the Class Committee that he is very sorry indeed that illness will prevent his being present at the Class Reunion. He continues to live on his family estate of several hundred acres at Roslyn, N. Y., where, since leaving college, he has raised and trained some of the most famous saddle horses of this country and Europe. It may be of interest to his classmates to know that at the horse shows held at Madison Square Garden, New York, and elsewhere his services as judge have been in demand for many years. Few men of his time are more thoroughly alive to the good points of a hunter.

LEE WEBSTER WOOLSTON

Born Brooklyn, N. Y., March 14, 1874.
Parents George Francis Woolston, Mary Isabelle Webster.
School Boston Latin School, Boston, Mass.
Years in College 1894-1895.
Married Marion Whitcomb, Fitchburg, April 26, 1905.
Children Raymond Whitcomb, Feb. 24, 1906; James Hayward, June 24, 1909; Lee Webster, Jr., Dec. 31, 1910; Theodore Francis, July 7, 1913.
Occupation Mercantile.
Address (home) 24 Wiswall St., West Newton, Mass.
(business) 170 Purchase St., Boston, Mass.

I was in business with my father in New Jersey and in New York City until 1902, then with the Brown Engine Co., Fitchburg, Mass. I started in the machinery business at Boston, 1911, in which I have continued since that time.

REPORTS OF CLASS REUNIONS IN 1915

On the evening of March 19, 1915, fifty members of the class met at the Harvard Club of Boston. After an informal reunion, dinner was served, following which there was a general discussion of plans for the Vicennial Reunion.

At 6.30 P. M., March 26, seventy-four '95 men assembled at the Harvard Club of New York City. After a half hour devoted to renewing acquaintances, a bountiful dinner was served in Harvard Hall. The meeting next adjourned to the Little Theatre in the same street, where seats had been reserved for the performance of "A Pair of Silk Stockings." Both at the Club and the theatre, the out-of-town members of the class who came from Boston, Washington, Philadelphia, etc., were the guests of the men who reside in New York City and vicinity, invitations having been sent out, under the direction of Fritz von Briesen, to every member of the class. After the play, all were bidden to a collation in the famous tea room of the Little Theatre by the owner and director, our classmate, Winthrop Ames. Mr. Ames had arranged some very interesting exhibitions of scene shifting for his guests, and later conducted them onto the stage, and to the Green Room, et cetera.

ADDENDA, ERRATA, ETC.

NOTE I. The following men were heard from after the body of the book, containing the biographical sketches, was printed. The statements made therein that they have not been heard from, are, therefore, now erroneous:

Brumbaugh, Martin Grove
Davis, George Adams
Farwell, Fred
Schereschewsky, Joseph Williams

Biographical sketches of Brumbaugh and Davis will be found in the appendix, while on page 404, in a note, mention is made of Farwell and Schereschewsky.

NOTE II. Parentheses surrounding proper names indicate that these names have been dropped by their former owners. They are retained in this Report merely for purposes of identification. For example: (Israel) Mowry Saben, now signs himself Mowry Saben. John William Draper (Maury), now signs himself John William Draper.
